Agreement Reached On Strategy

West To Ask Early Showdown With Gromyko In Berlin Fight

Replies To Lewis Charge

Ike Says 'Untrue' He Favors Steel In Wage Dispute

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today it is completely untrue that he has intervened in favor of the steel companies in their wage dispute with organized labor.

Eisenhower was asked at his news conference to reply to a charge by President John L. Lewis of the United Mine Workers that the President has moved to favor management in the steel wage negotiations now going on.

Eisenhower replied vigorously that this charge is completely untrue. He said he recalled that he had urged both sides in the steel dispute to exercise discipline or the country would be in a bad fix.

The President said he doesn't want to see the wage-price spiral continue and has urged management to keep its prices down. He would be delighted if prices could be reduced, Eisenhower added.

As far as favoring management is concerned, the President said he has very little interest in the relative few among the management and big capitalistic classes as compared with his interest in the working man.

But, the President went on, the working men must be careful not to do things that will hurt themselves.

In response to a question, Eisenhower said he does not think Congress should go home until it enacts some corrective labor legislation.

A reporter noted that AFL-CIO President George Meany and Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa had said Congress ought to shelve labor reform measures. Eisenhower said he is disturbed by what seems to be the growing habit of some persons to accept the theories of Karl Marx that there always will be bitter and implacable warfare between the man who works with his hands and the man who hires him.

Describing this as an un-American attitude, Eisenhower said he regards each worker, down to those doing the most menial tasks, as being just as important as anyone in management or any capitalist.

Senate Eyes Tax Hike On Cigarettes

Anti-Polio Shots Also Set For Action; Race Tax Passed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Senate today tackles a House-approved bill to increase the state cigarette tax two cents a pack. It is a 46-million-dollar segment of Gov. Michael V. DiSalle's big tax plan.

Also on tap is Senate action on a bill to require anti-polio shots for children entering school along with inoculations for several other childhood diseases.

The cigarette tax vote comes within 24 hours of Senate approval of a bill to increase the state tax on horse-racing parimutuel wagering by an estimated seven million dollars in the next two years.

Senate action on the cigarette and parimutuel bills is a switch from an earlier policy which decreed a proposal to increase the state's corporation franchise tax by 96 millions in the next two years must be considered before all the rest.

But that policy of Senate Majority Leader Frank W. King (D-Lucas) apparently withered a week ago in the head of the corporation tax battle which still isn't settled.

If the cigarette tax increase clears the big Senate hurdle today, only the equally controversial sales-tax revision and the corporation tax will remain to be acted upon. Those two bills combined represent more than half of DiSalle's general fund tax requests, however.

The present Ohio cigarette tax is three cents for a pack of 20. The federal tax is eight cents. Today's proposal would boost the state tax to five cents.

The horse race tax bill which would nick the wallets of bettors by another $4,850,000 a year—by both the tax collector and race track operators—passed the Senate without a word of argument. The vote was 22-5 with five Republicans supporting it.

The wagering tax bill must return to the House for consideration of amendments, including those which will increase the track operators' share of the take from betting pools by an estimated $1,350,000 a year.

DiSalle indicated to newsmen he will not oppose the wagering tax bill despite the fact track operators will benefit. Originally, the only idea was to raise money for the state. Senate Taxation Committee Chairman Stephen R. Olenick (D-Mahoning) estimated the tax increase will bring another 3½ million dollars a year into the state treasury.

And Olenick forecast better racing for Ohio. He said the increased take for operators would make possible larger race purses. And DiSalle added, without apparent enthusiasm:

Constructive Proposal To Be Big 3 Aim

Next 48 Hours Of Geneva Conference Seen Most Critical

GENEVA (AP)—Western foreign ministers reportedly decided today to call for an early showdown with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko in secret talks over the Berlin crisis.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and ministers of Britain, France and West Germany agreed in a midday strategy meeting, officials said, that Gromyko should be told the time has come for the Soviet Union — which touched off the crisis last November—to put up new, constructive proposals for a solution.

Gromyko's reaction to this challenge, it was hoped, should shortly disclose whether the Geneva meeting has any chance of success in easing the East-West dispute on Berlin and clearing the way for a summit conference.

The Western ministers met for an hour at U.S. headquarters. They wound up their strategy session a little more than two hours before another round of secret talks with Gromyko at Herter's villa.

An American spokesman said the "situation with regard to Berlin was not appreciably advanced" by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko's statement to the Big Four conference Tuesday.

But British and French diplomats said Gromyko's speech was being studied with extreme care because it contained intimations the Kremlin may be interested in finding a way out of the Berlin deadlock.

British and French sources thought the next 48 hours of the conference — now in its fourth week — could prove to be the most critical of the parley with a Berlin deal and a summit meeting depending on the outcome.

Tuesday's conference session ran for more than three hours, resulting in postponement until this afternoon of a private meeting of the ministers originally scheduled for Tuesday night.

Ike Declares Summit Talks Not Justified

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today there has been no detectible progress at the Geneva talks that would justify a summit conference.

Somoza Sets His Troops To Meet Invaders

Nicaragua Leader Asks OAS Probe Of Threat To Regime

MANAGUA, Nicaragua (AP) — President Luis Somoza marshaled his forces today to meet three boatloads of invaders reported en route from Cuba to join in Latin America's latest vestpocket revolt.

Somoza ordered his ambassador in Washington, Guillermo Sevilla-Sacasa, to ask the Organization of American States for an investigation of the threat to his regime, one of Latin America's last three dictatorships.

The Foreign Ministry said Tuesday night it had learned that three schooners carrying revolutionaries and arms set out from Cuba for Nicaragua to support 75 or more rebels who landed by plane from Costa Rica over the weekend. The government claimed it had that group on the run.

Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro, asked in Havana about the report of invasion from his country, said he was too busy to answer "baseless charges".

Once a fiery advocate of aid to rebels against dictatorship, Castro has been denying he is aiding such movements since a Cuban-based invasion of Panama backfired in April while the Cuban leader was trying to make friends in the United States.

Weirton Elects Steel Official As New Mayor

WEIRTON — David T. Frew, Weirton Steel Co. supervisor of training and education, was elected mayor in the city's non-partisan election Tuesday.

Frew defeated Joseph Ference by a vote of 5,846 to 3,065, according to complete but unofficial returns.

Mayor Samuel Kusic, whose four-year term expires June 30, did not seek re-election.

It was Ference's second bid for mayor and the second defeat for the auto dealer.

Voters also chose seven councilmen from a field of 14.

They include George Rodak, who will be starting his fourth successive four-year term. Rodak has been a councilman since Weirton was incorporated 12 years ago.

Other seats in Council went to Robert Warren, Peter Sokolowski, Bernard Kelly, Edward Rowland and Milan Ralich.

The vote was 8,911 from a total registration of over 14,000.

The incoming Weirton administration apparently will have a new city manager. William L. Kell, who has held the post for two years, said he would not accept reappointment when his term expires July 1. He is president of the West Virginia League of Municipalities.

Audit Bares Only Half Of 'Illegal Fund'

DiSalle Had Hinted Scandal Involving State's Employes

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—State officials say they can properly account for only half of more than $400,000 in state money spent out of a fund which may not have legally existed.

"This is the case I told you about weeks ago," Gov. Michael J. DiSalle told newsmen Tuesday —"The one to make your hair stand on end."

Weeks ago, the governor hinted to newsmen of a scandal in state government. He said it involved state employes "selling the state down the river."

Tuesday, DiSalle released a report by State Auditor James A. Rhodes which questions the legality of spending more than $400,000 from a special liquidation fund.

The fund was built up by years of state charges for liquidating now defunct building and loan firms. The firms mainly were those which financially suffered during the early depression years.

The mystery surrounding the fund lies in the inability of state examiners to find a law creating it.

"I don't believe the auditor ever knew it existed and (that) it had never been audited," DiSalle said.

The current audit went back to Jan. 1, 1946, when the fund showed a balance of slightly more than $31,000. From then until last April 30, another $396,000 passed through the fund. But on that latter date, only $2,628 was left in the fund's checking account, examiners said, and about $28,000 was listed in investments.

The auditor's report gave little indication of how much spending from the fund was legitimate and how much, if any, illegitimate, aside from the questionable status of the fund itself.

But Andrew C. Putka, superintendent of building and loans, said 765 checks issued against the fund during the audit period, and totaling $217,913.14 were not properly supported by vouchers and the like.

DiSalle said it will be up to the Franklin County prosecutor to decide whether criminal violation is involved.

Grand Jury Recalled For Session June 15

LISBON — The April Grand Jury has been recalled for June 15 for a one-day session to reduce cases which would otherwise be pending until September, Prosecutor G. William Brokaw announced today.

The prosecutor said he is scheduling study of cases against defendants now in jail and unable to post bonds so that their legal status can be determined by the panel before autumn.

Long Termed Mentally Ill; Is Committed

Governor's Wife Requested 90 Days Observation, Aid

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP) — A judge committed ailing Gov. Earl K. Long of Louisiana to a hospital Tuesday "for his protection and that of others." He acted at the request of Mrs. Long.

Mrs. Long's petition said the governor "is exhausted, overworked and ill both mentally and physically" and requires observation and treatment in a mental hospital for 90 days.

Dr. Arthur Long of Baton Rouge, La., a cousin, also signed the petition filed with Probate Court Judge Hugh Gibson.

Dr. Titus Harris, chief psychiatrist at John Sealy Hospital, where Long, 65, has been a patient since Saturday, told the judge the governor is mentally ill and likely to cause injury to himself and others.

Long came to Galveston after a tantrum on the floor of the Louisiana Legislature last week.

Physicians said he entered the hospital voluntarily but has refused to answer psychiatrists' questions.

Texas law permits a doctor to hold a patient 96 hours after the patient demands release.

'Third Time's The Charm'

Stanton's Voters Pass Bond Issue

Stanton School District voters finally succeeded on the third try in passing a bond issue for a new school, approving the $498,000 proposal by a slim margin in a special election Tuesday.

The bonds required an affirmative vote of 60 per cent and received about 62 per cent, or a majority of 22 votes.

One of the most controversial issues to hit northen Jefferson County in many years, the bond plan calling for a new elementary school in the Empire area and installation of inside toilets in the Hammondsville building passed by a complete but unofficial vote of 702 to 432.

The vote in the district's eight precincts was:

	For	Against
Irondale	224	44
Brush Creek	82	35
Hammondsville	135	102
Port Homer	4	101
Stratton	6	129
Empire	232	10
Ross Township	3	7
Grant	16	4

The bond issue, rejected twice in previous elections within the past year, carries a tax rate of 2.4 mills and is for a 23-year period.

Stanton officials plan to have the 10-classroom building completed by Sept. 1, 1960. It will serve 300 students now attending buildings at Empire, Stratton and Port Homer. Robert Beatty of East Liverpool is architect.

Officials indicated that inside toilets in the Hammondsville building would be installed by next fall about the start of the new term. It is presently the only building in the county without inside facilities, the Board of Education said earlier.

The board added that it expects to receive bids on both projects in a few months.

Tuesday's vote totaled 1,134, or some 200 less than were cast in the second election last September.

Supt. C. P. Henderson expressed gratefulness that residents

Collision Ends Vacation Trip Of Old Couple

Man, 74, Wife, 77, Hurt When Car Hits Truck On Dresden

"I'm afraid that's the end of our last vacation," a 74-year-old Belmont County man told police Tuesday after he and his wife, 77, were injured when their auto collided with a pickup truck on Dresden Ave. 400 feet south of McKee St.

The crash caused heavy damage to a 1955 two-door sedan driven by Albert Wilby of Bethesda and a 1956 model pickup truck of Litten Motor Sales on Walnut St., operated by Augustus Baumgarner, 38, of Glenmoor, police said.

Wilby was released after treatment at City Hospital for a possible fracture of the shoulder. His wife, Ann, was treated for abrasions of the right hand and contusions of the head.

Police said Wilby's northbound car, moving at about 40 miles an hour, crashed into the southbound truck driven by Baumgarner, who pulled to the right and nearly brought his vehicle to a halt before the crash.

Baumgarner said he attempted to dodge Wilby's car after he noted the Belmont Countian was driving about two feet over the center line. Wilby told officers he did not realize he was out of his own lane. The crash caused heavy damage to the front and left rear of both vehicles, police said.

In other crashes, the car of a student driver crashed into the side of a downtown building and a Gardendale man was cited for reckless driving after an E. 6th St. mishap, police said.

A 1958 sedan driven by Manuel L. Teixeira, 51, of 1804 Harvey Ave. dived over a low protective barrier on the city-owned lot adjoining City Hall at 2:52 p. m. Tuesday and rammed into the side of the adjoining brick building owned by Mrs. Ann Bell, real estate dealer, police said.

Teixeria, who carried a temporary instruction permit, told police he nosed the car toward a metered parking spot, but stepped on both the brake and accelerator pedals when he attempted to halt. The auto went over a low wooden "bumper strip" and struck the

Truck Blast Killing 11 Was 2nd Tragedy

SCHUYLKILL HAVEN, Pa. (AP) — Tragedy has struck like lightning in this area for the second time within six months. Its weapon — violent explosions. Its victims — mostly curious spectators.

Eleven men were killed and 15 injured Tuesday when a propane gas truck involved in a collision exploded on heavily traveled Route 122, about 100 miles northwest of Philadelphia.

A tractor-trailer rammed the rear of the halted gas truck, setting it afire. Less than an hour later, while firemen were trying to put out the blaze, there was a thunderous explosion. Bodies were tossed about and utility poles ripped down by flying metal and debris, and by what was described as a "ball of fire" which rolled up the highway.

It might have been the cab or the tank of the gas truck. Both were hurled several hundred feet.

Ten of the victims were among 30 spectators standing as far as 300 feet away. The 11th was a fireman.

Stanton officials plan to have the 10-classroom building completed by Sept. 1, 1960. It will serve 300 students now attending buildings at Empire, Stratton and Port Homer. Robert Beatty of East Liverpool is architect.

Officials indicated that inside toilets in the Hammondsville building would be installed by next fall about the start of the new term. It is presently the only building in the county without inside facilities, the Board of Education said earlier.

The board added that it expects to receive bids on both projects in a few months.

Tuesday's vote totaled 1,134, or some 200 less than were cast in the second election last September.

Supt. C. P. Henderson expressed gratefulness that residents

Collision Ends Vacation Trip Of Old Couple

Man, 74, Wife, 77, Hurt When Car Hits Truck On Dresden

"I'm afraid that's the end of our last vacation," a 74-year-old Belmont County man told police Tuesday after he and his wife, 77, were injured when their auto collided with a pickup truck on Dresden Ave. 400 feet south of McKee St.

The crash caused heavy damage to a 1955 two-door sedan driven by Albert Wilby of Bethesda and a 1956 model pickup truck of Litten Motor Sales on Walnut St., operated by Augustus Baumgarner, 38, of Glenmoor, police said.

Wilby was released after treatment at City Hospital for a possible fracture of the shoulder. His wife, Ann, was treated for abrasions of the right hand and contusions of the head.

Police said Wilby's northbound car, moving at about 40 miles an hour, crashed into the southbound truck driven by Baumgarner, who pulled to the right and nearly brought his vehicle to a halt before the crash.

Baumgarner said he attempted to dodge Wilby's car after he noted the Belmont Countian was driving about two feet over the center line. Wilby told officers he did not realize he was out of his own lane. The crash caused heavy damage to the front and left rear of both vehicles, police said.

In other crashes, the car of a student driver crashed into the side of a downtown building and a Gardendale man was cited for reckless driving after an E. 6th St. mishap, police said.

A 1958 sedan driven by Manuel L. Teixeira, 51, of 1804 Harvey Ave. dived over a low protective barrier on the city-owned lot adjoining City Hall at 2:52 p. m. Tuesday and rammed into the side of the adjoining brick building owned by Mrs. Ann Bell, real estate dealer, police said.

Teixeria, who carried a temporary instruction permit, told police he nosed the car toward a metered parking spot, but stepped on both the brake and accelerator pedals when he attempted to halt. The auto went over a low wooden "bumper strip" and struck the

Constructive Proposal To Be Big 3 Aim

Next 48 Hours Of Geneva Conference Seen Most Critical

GENEVA (AP)—Western foreign ministers reportedly decided today to call for an early showdown with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko in secret talks over the Berlin crisis.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and ministers of Britain, France and West Germany agreed in a midday strategy meeting, officials said, that Gromyko should be told the time has come for the Soviet Union — which touched off the crisis last November—to put up new, constructive proposals for a solution.

Gromyko's reaction to this challenge, it was hoped, should shortly disclose whether the Geneva meeting has any chance of success in easing the East-West dispute on Berlin and clearing the way for a summit conference.

The Western ministers met for an hour at U.S. headquarters. They wound up their strategy session a little more than two hours before another round of secret talks with Gromyko at Herter's villa.

An American spokesman said the "situation with regard to Berlin was not appreciably advanced" by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko's statement to the Big Four conference Tuesday.

But British and French diplomats said Gromyko's speech was being studied with extreme care because it contained intimations the Kremlin may be interested in finding a way out of the Berlin deadlock.

British and French sources thought the next 48 hours of the conference — now in its fourth week — could prove to be the most critical of the parley with a Berlin deal and a summit meeting depending on the outcome.

Tuesday's conference session ran for more than three hours, resulting in postponement until this afternoon of a private meeting of the ministers originally scheduled for Tuesday night.

Ike Declares Summit Talks Not Justified

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today there has been no detectible progress at the Geneva talks that would justify a summit conference.

Truck Blast Killing 11 Was 2nd Tragedy

SCHUYLKILL HAVEN, Pa. (AP) — Tragedy has struck like lightning in this area for the second time within six months. Its weapon — violent explosions. Its victims — mostly curious spectators.

Eleven men were killed and 15 injured Tuesday when a propane gas truck involved in a collision exploded on heavily traveled Route 122, about 100 miles northwest of Philadelphia.

A tractor-trailer rammed the rear of the halted gas truck, setting it afire. Less than an hour later, while firemen were trying to put out the blaze, there was a thunderous explosion. Bodies were tossed about and utility poles ripped down by flying metal and debris, and by what was described as a "ball of fire" which rolled up the highway.

It might have been the cab or the tank of the gas truck. Both were hurled several hundred feet.

Ten of the victims were among 30 spectators standing as far as 300 feet away. The 11th was a fireman.

Air Force Offers Commissions For College Graduates

The Air Force will offer commissions as second lieutenants to a limited number of college graduates in a new program announced by the Pentagon, T. Sgt. Charles D. Ward, recruiter at City Hall, said today.

The commissions will be available for inactive and active duty airmen if they have a degree from an accredited college or university, he said. They also are available to civilian graduates. Although the Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps program will continue to be the major source for young officers, the new Officer Training School Program will be used to fill specialized officer shortages and furnish needed officers to meet requirements noted on short notice.

The plan calls for accepted applicants — whether airmen or civilian college graduates — to complete a three-month training course at Lackland Air Force Base at San Antonio, Tex. The first students will begin training in November.

The newly-commissioned officers will have a three-year active duty commitment. After training at Lackland, they will be assigned direct to duty or to specialized training courses. The applicants must be between 20½ and 27½. There is no restriction on marital status. Sgt. Ward said interested men should visit or telephone the Air Force Recruiting Office at City Hall.

Air Force Offers Commissions For College Graduates

The Air Force will offer commissions as second lieutenants to a limited number of college graduates in a new program announced by the Pentagon, T. Sgt. Charles D. Ward, recruiter at City Hall, said today.

The commissions will be available for inactive and active duty airmen if they have a degree from an accredited college or university, he said. They also are available to civilian graduates. Although the Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps program will continue to be the major source for young officers, the new Officer Training School Program will be used to fill specialized officer shortages and furnish needed officers to meet requirements noted on short notice.

The plan calls for accepted applicants — whether airmen or civilian college graduates — to complete a three-month training course at Lackland Air Force Base at San Antonio, Tex. The first students will begin training in November.

The newly-commissioned officers will have a three-year active duty commitment. After training at Lackland, they will be assigned direct to duty or to specialized training courses. The applicants must be between 20½ and 27½. There is no restriction on marital status. Sgt. Ward said interested men should visit or telephone the Air Force Recruiting Office at City Hall.

Easy On One Side, Meany On The Other

That is why the president of AFL-CIO delivers the blasts. It is part of his job. He is earning his salary when he makes politicians nervous.

As he and other union leaders have been pointing out tirelessly for many years, the issue of whether and how much organized labor should be held answerable for the extraordinary power it has been given is in politics. It is the essence of politics, because organized labor today is the source of the money and the energy keeping the Democratic part of the two-party system alive.

It is, therefore, part of every leading unionist's job to keep his political fences mended. He must keep his side's partisans lined up and full of enthusiasm. He must whip the faint-hearted back into the line of march when they would prefer to fall by the wayside.

He must make the opposition ever-mindful of organized labor's financial resources and person-to-person influence in elections. The main idea in this respect is to keep the opposition off-guard; to discourage it from rallying all its resources at once and perhaps striking a blow the unions could not parry.

BUT WHO IS the opposition?

What is causing President Meany and the other top strategists of unionism to blast off so frequently and so vehemently? What accounts for the fact that Mr. Meany and James R. Hoffa, even Mr. Hoffa and Walter Reuther, can see eye to eye on this when on other matters they are irreconcilable?

Being in politics and being fully and closely informed, these men and their skilled advisers are in possession of information, we suspect, that so far is known only to politicians.

They know how many U.S. representatives and senators are in their pockets, how many are itching to get out and, of course how many they never had in their pockets in the first place. And they are aware of a revolt brewing in the congressional mind against unionism's touch-me-not attitude.

Politicians who stay in office by making more right guesses than wrong ones about voter feeling in their districts and states are weighing the specific question of what will happen if they are recorded one way or the other on labor reform.

UNTIL RECENTLY, they hoped to be able to get off easy with a vote on a bill that would specify procedural reform in unions and skip the hot question of whether to curb unions in their dealings with the public.

But in the House, where the hot question now is being heated still hotter, there are more politicians playing with the idea of genuine reform than Mr. Meany, Mr. Hoffa, Mr. Reuther, John L. Lewis, Harry Bridges or any of the other leading lights of unionism like to think about.

The point is that all unionism's leading lights are leading in the same direction in this respect, and that is part of Mr. Meany's problem. Whether he likes it or not, he and Mr. Hoffa are both interested in the same thing — no reform in unionism. They are working opposite sides of the street, but they are using the same sales talk.

No More Plain Black And White?

Incredible as it seems outside the places where it's credible, Southerners are finding symbolism where no symbolism was intended. The latest one is "The Three Little Pigs," which a Florida legislator thinks should be banned because one pig is black, one is white and one is mixed.

This one isn't quite as silly as the story about the black rabbit and the white rabbit that was offensive in Alabama, but it will do nicely as an illustration of what is plaguing the Deep South.

There is no such thing as plain black and white any more. Everything has to be given significance. The black horses must not win the races. They must not be seen in the pasture with white horses.

All pictures with white leghorns and blackbirds must be banned, because blackbirds can fly higher and make more noise than white birds.

Black printing on white paper will have to go, though that raises a ticklish question. Would white printing on black paper be better, or will everything have to be made fancy — red printing on green paper?

Black-and-white snowscapes such as are common in the North will be subject to ethnic analysis, as will the principal elements of floating crap games. There can be no more black-and-white television, either.

The Deep South, except for philosophers like Harry Golden, who was imported from the North, is losing its perspective — what little it ever had on the color issue. It is Golden, by the way, who points out that if everybody in the South would remain standing the color barrier would disappear. It is only whent hey quit walking about that the trouble starts — like those desegregated pigs living under the same roof and those ruthless rabbits! Tsch, tsch.

Another Approach To Traffic Safety

The heavy traffic toll across the nation and in Ohio during the Memorial Day weekend re-emphasized the need for pursuing every possible approach on behalf of safe driving.

One such approach—which may seem insignificant at first glance, but which makes a lot of sense when looked at more closely—is being sponsored locally by the East Liverpool Fraternal Order of Police Lodge.

It involves a car sticker—"For Safety's Sake, Slow Down And Live. Stop For A Coffee Break"—and is directed at the heavy summertime traffic from now until Labor Day.

Along with the sticker go some suggestions on safe driving. They were outlined when the FOP launched its campaign last week, but are so pertinent that they deserve repeating. They include:

Stay alert on long trips. Stop for coffee every couple of hours, get out of the car, walk around and stretch your legs.

Keep night driving to a minimum. Be especially careful at dusk—the most dangerous driving time of the day.

Know and obey traffic laws. Last year, 62 per cent of all drivers involved in traffic fatalities were violating one or more laws.

Slow down and live. Speed is America's No. 1 highway killer.

As in any campaign, however, slogans and suggestions won't do the trick alone. You, as a driver, must put into practice the lessons they contain.

It could be a matter of life or death.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Mrs. Laura Virginia Douglas, a Brooklyn schoolma'am, is having a banquet thrown for her at the Waldorf to mark her retirement after more than half a century. What makes it news is that this lady is the famous Virginia O'Hanlon whose "Is There A Santa Claus?" letter to the editor brought the reply familiar to almost every fireside in America. How about featuring the banquet through a letter from Santa Claus asking whether there is really a Virginia O'Hanlon and featuring a reply from Virginia?

Dear Virginia: Some of my friends say there is no Virginia O'Hanlon. A word from you would clear it up. Please tell me the truth, is there a Virginia O'Hanlon?

Santa

DEAR SANTA: Your friends who say there is no Virginia O'Hanlon are wrong. They have been affected by the skepticism of a skeptical age. They have read my letter and the editor's reply so often through these many years that they regard them as fictional. They do not think Virginia exists. They do not believe unless they see. Yes, Santa Claus, there is a Virginia O'Hanlon. She exists as certainly as the famous letter and editorial exist.

Did you ever see Virginia O'Hanlon dancing on a lawn? Of course not, and you never will. She has been too busy as a dedicated public schoolteacher. (And not in a dancing course.)

Is Virginia real? Ah, Santa, you should see this banquet. She can hardly believe it.

When she asked, "Is there a Santa Claus?" she was a moppet who never dreamed she was starting something that would become a high mark of Christmas. At times it's been embarrassing. But she is real and alive indeed, and never felt more so than tonight at the Waldorf-Astoria banquet.

All she can say to you is, "Having a wonderful time. Wish you were here."

'Quit Worrying, That Nag Can't Beat Us!'

The T-Man's Unhappy Lot

By Ben Cole

The ingenuity of internal revenue agents is a big reason why taxes are inevitable.

Sometimes the T-men almost astonish themselves when they go after unpaid taxes.

One morning recently, the revenue service woke up to find it had acquired 140 reducing salons, seized for an alleged $1,235,000 tax debt.

Not only that, but a Treasury Department official was on the phone demanding angrily, "Where is my wife going to get her reducing treatments? She just contracted for a $500 course with that outfit."

It didn't take the government long to learn it had a pretty lean business on its hands without chubby customers to ring the cash register. The reducing salons are now back in operation under bankruptcy proceedings, trying to roll the unpaid taxes off overweight clients.

Seizing slendering firms is unusual, the revenue agents admit, but they have pounced on circus elephants, truckloads of watermelons and a lonely mule or so in an effort to squeeze unpaid taxes out of citizens.

ONE AGENT in IRS headquarters in Washington returned from lunch recently and spied a convertible parked at the curb on 12th St. NW. He noted the license number from force of habit, rushed inside and discovered the car was an asset he was hunting to satisfy some unpaid taxes. Quickly, he ran outside and slapped a seizure notice on the windshield. As he did so, he was roughly spun around to face a mean - tempered prizefighter who had been inside trying to work out a deal for paying his delinquent taxes.

Two other agents not long ago called on a suburban grocer to learn why he omitted filing income tax returns the last five years. The untaxed citizen seemed rather friendly and made a date with the agents to go over his records that afternoon. When the T-men returned and approached the house, a shotgun was poked out of the door.

"Look out!" yelled one agent, knocking his partner to the ground. The shotgun blast caught one man, wounding him slightly. Fifteen minutes later, the grocer killed himself.

Another agent, hunting for a citizen whose dues were in arrears, found her working in a laundry. Her pay was so small she could barely keep herself, let alone pay her back taxes. The agent simply borrowed her boss's telephone and called a competing laundry. Then he bundled the surprised woman into a taxi and took her to a new, better-paying job.

"He was way out of line, but he was human," the IRS commented.

A high IRS official related how he was sent to seize a mule. He made the seizure all right but the only way he could get the animal to town was to ride it 12 miles over the hills.

An eager agent sent out to seize a tractor-trailer outfit drove into headquarters with a boxcar-load of watermelons.

"Take 'em back! take 'em back! screamed his boss. "We haven't anyplace to keep 'em and they'll spoil for sure. Don't you know a load of watermelons is worth more than the truck you haul 'em in?"

IN WASHINGTON, revenue agents descended on a tax-delinquent after-hours drinking resort. The only asset they could grab was the club's lease. For a few days, the boys were in the embarrassing position of owning an illegal business. They "solved" their problem by selling the lease.

A circus that got behind with its taxes reported over the years that it owned 15 elephants, whose daily feedings were tax-deductible business expenses. Revenue agents sent to seize the elephants for taxes found there were only six. The circus had been playing tricks on Uncle Sam.

"You name it and we've seized it at some time or other," a revenue agent declared. The list extends from abattoirs and bordellos to X-ray machines and zithers.

Once the boys grabbed a dry-cleaning establishment and actually had to run it for several weeks in order to return the customers' clothes.

"Sometimes we act swiftly to keep the assets from being taken away," an agent explained. "The taxpayers can't tell but what they are being held up by a robber. It's risky. We've got our commissions in our pockets but they won't stop bullets." Often, Uncle Sam grabs the money right out of a tardy taxpayer's cash register with scarcely any prior explanation.

A race horse was seized just after running a race. "We thought there might be a purse and we wanted that, too," the agent said. However, the nag had run out of the money.

A Washingtonian whose sports car was seized ignored the whole affair for several days. Wondering tax agents finally mentioned it to him and found he was unaware it was gone.

Singers who suddenly make a "hit" record are excellent game for the revenue agents if they happen to be behind in their taxes. "A single hit will make $30,000 to $40,000 in just a few weeks," the tax men said admiringly. As the money rolls in, they are on hand to catch it.

ON ONE OCCASION, revenuers set out to seize an ocean liner. "We had no idea what we'd do with it," they said. "Fortunately, a settlement was made before we go to the dock."

Outsmarting citizens who try to outsmart the government is a tough occupation. Agents figure they are keeping the game even for the 99 or more per cent of us who try to do right by Uncle Sam.

"We want to get the best deal we can for the government," tax men declared. "Every once in a while there is a report that a big tax bill has been settled for a few cents on the dollar. What the public doesn't know is that it's the best we can do. Every time it happens, somebody yells, 'Ha! You let that bird get away with millions but you came back at me for $3 of interest I forgot to report.'"

Like the Gilbert and Sullivan cop, the revenue agent feels his lot is not a happy one.

Purely Personal

By Truman Twill

I am supposed to take up a cudgel because small foreign cars are hurting the U.S. auto industry, but darned if I can find a cudgel with the right heft to it. For one thing, I warned the industry that it would happen. For another, it was not my idea to make cars so expensive they would subsidize the competition both at home and abroad.

I can prove without much trouble that the climate of this part of the country is unfit for human habitation 85 per cent of the year —a fact well known to all who endure it, though rarely admitted.

If I am supposed to be alarmed about some one thing going on in this country, I will choose the raucous "Har! Har!" issued from the bull necks of labor bosses whenever they are accused of being as ruthless as the fellows F. D. Roosevelt used to call "malefactors of great wealth."

I didn't know this before, but every time taxes go up the result is reflected in the Consumer Price Index, that slippery little statistic that gives automatic wage boosts to millions of key employes. In case you are hazy about the meaning of the phrase, "built-in engines of inflation," that's how it chugs.

It has crossed a lot of minds since the death of John Foster Dulles that his critics were tired of the problem he had grappled so long, not the man, himself, and that Christian A. Herter, his successor, will suffer the same fate.

I cannot understand why taxpayers ever permit their servants on the public payroll to harass them in any way, shape, or form.

People who remember Huey Long, the "kingfish" of southern-fried, rabble-rousing politics, who came within wishing distance of a Democratic presidential nomination, are impressed with the surmise that his brother, Gov. Earl Long, needs psychiatric care because he flipped his official lid. Huey made a whole career of lid-flipping.

It strikes me that most of the people who urge me to stay calm and keep my shirt on are apprehensive about what might happen if I took my shirt off and got excited. They're not interested in what might happen to them.

I can be as loyal to journalism as anybody, but I wish it could understand the difference between a diplomatic conference and a raid on a clip-joint. I think it is more important to let diplomats talk things out in private than to be quizzed by reporters and mug-shot by photographers.

I always wonder, come June, if campus parting is still the sweet sorrow it used to be, due to my strong impression that young people today are more cool and casual about these things than their forbears were.

Senate Spectacle

By David Lawrence

Europe Ponders Strauss Controversy

LONDON

The spectacle which the United States Senate is making of itself nowadays is causing a good deal of comment in Europe. It is incredible to most Europeans that a President is evidently not allowed to select his own Cabinet officers without getting the consent of the opposition political party.

David Lawrence

Newspaper accounts tellin how the Senate Foreign Relations Committee has undertaken to pass on the qualifications of ambassadors tend to reinforce also the criticisms which have long been made of the American form of government as lacking a sense of responsibility because it permits divided authority.

It was more than 100 years ago that Lord Macauley wrote his famous treatise on the American constitutional system and said it was "all sail and no anchor." Even allowing for the differences between European and American concepts, the fact remains that the prestige of the United States suffers when such picayunish matters as the Senate Foreign Relations Committee has been dealing with lately in passing on ambassadorial appointments are reported in the press of Europe.

THERE IS MORE than a passing interest, moreover, in the case of Lewis Strauss, whose appointment as secretary of commerce has stirred up such a controversy in the U.S. Senate. In Europe, where they heard tales of "witch hunting" and "persecution" under the era of so-called "McCarthyism," newspapermen on European papers are asking what is back of the apparent vendetta launched against Mr. Strauss.

In Europe they know him as the man who helped to prevent Communists from getting atomic secrets and as an official who has had the most cordial relations with Western governments on atomic matters. It is asked whether the pendulum has swung the other way and if the anti-Communists now are the ones being persecuted.

When some of the newsmen who inquire about the issues involved in the Strauss case are told that much of the opposition comes from senators who favor government ownership of electric power projects and that the present secretary of commerce has been opposed to their views, the question then raised is whether the Democratic party is America's Socialist party and whether this is going to be the issue in the 1960 campaign.

THERE IS A REVIVAL naturally of the discussion about the celebrated case of J. Robert Oppenheimer, noted scientist, who was denied "security clearance" while Mr. Strauss was chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission.

But it was an impartial board which revealed that Dr. Oppenheimer had contacts with Communists while he was at the head of a secret laboratory project of the U.S. government and that, when intelligence officers questioned him about these contacts, he misled them for a long while and then, three years afterward, confessed that he had lied to the American intelligence officers.

It was, in the final analysis, matters involving Dr. Oppenheimer's judgment and discretion which led to his being barred, rather than any question about his loyalty. To the European it looks like Mr. Strauss is about to be punished by the adverse votes of many Democratic senators for the performance of his duty as a public official.

The case has come to be talked about abroad as one that is not likely to end if the Strauss nomination is rejected for, despite the statements of various senators who say they are giving objective consideration to it, the fact remains that rarely ever is a Cabinet officer rejected by the Senate and almost never has there been an instance where he was rejected ostensibly for his views on public policy.

THE CONTROVERSY establishes an interesting precedent in that it helps to support the case for some form of parliamentary government which would provide America with a way to fix directly on one or the other of the major political parties the responsibility for the conduct of both the executive and legislative branches of the government at the same time.

The handling of the Strauss appointment is equivalent to an "impeachment" of the secretary of commerce, who took the oath of office seven months ago and has been performing the duties of his office satisfactorily ever since. The adverse vote of senators now means that these senators would remove him from office not for what he has done at his post but for views he held prior to entering the Cabinet.

This is an obviously unfair approach. Conceivably it could, in time of war, take away from the commander-in-chief the power to promote a worthy military officer to a higher command post.

It certainly is a means of frustrating executive operations by interfering with the right of a president to select his own advisers and aides.

It's small wonder that so many Europeans who study the abuses permitted under our constitutional system think that America hasn't quite matured.

Federal Price Control

By Raymond Moley

The two armies of giants in the retail trade are at it again. On the one side are manufacturers who wish to prevent, by federal law, the cutting of prices by retail establishments. On the other, there are the chain stores, department stores and discount houses that would sell at a price below that fixed by the manufacturers.

On the side of these are various departments of the administration, including the Department of Justice which points out that the bills proposed would be out of step with the anti-trust acts and the principles of free enterprise.

There are bills in the House and Senate which would permit manufacturers to fix a minimum retail price for their products.

ALL RETAILERS are familiar with the origins of this in 1937, when the Miller-Tydings bill became law.

This, however, merely permitted states to enact the so-called "fair trade" laws. But these "fair trade" laws have had several setbacks in decisions of state courts which of appeals declared in the case of General Electric vs. Masters Mail Order that a mail order company could not be prevented from selling at cut rates in states with "fair trade" laws. This practically left the field wide open.

The bills to close this gap and to permit minimum price fixing by manufacturers were introduced in the Senate by Humphrey and Proxmire and in the House by Oren Harris, chairman of the Committee on Interstate Commerce.

The argument for these bills is that the small independent retailer needs protection against chain stores, department stores and discount houses which, because of large volume, can afford to sell at a smaller profit on individual items than can the little fellow.

It is difficult to name any other legislation in Congress of more concern to more people, pro and con, than this.

There are millions of "little fellows" on both sides. There are the small retailers and there are consumers who, in the face of inflation, want to buy as cheaply as possible.

THE CASE for these consumers has been championed by the AFL-CIO, which has joined the administration in opposition to the bills. The AFl-CIO spokesman, Peter Henle, Director of Research, has summarized the consumers' argument:

"The AFL-CIO views this proposal with grave concern. The wage and salary workers organized in AFL-CIO unions represent a very large portion of the consuming public, whose interests we believe will be adversely affected by the adoption of this proposal.

"We think that federal resale price maintenance will, if enacted (1) increase the cost of living, (2) encourage high-price, low-volume methods of distribution as against low-price, high-volume distribution, (3) intensify the consumer's confusion in the marketplace through the further development of unknown 'house brands' by the same manufacturers who make well-known name brands, and (4) offer no real assistance to small business."

There is the argument on principle, also: The peril of any sort of price fixing by anyone, either the private manufacturer or the government. Suppose the manufacturers fix prices backed by federal law. Who is to determine what should be the legitimate profit that they will make?

No doubt, when that question would arise after the enactment of these restrictions on minimum prices, the sponsors of these bills would come forth with government regulation of manufacturers' prices. Thus, free enterprise would suffer all along the line. The Associated Newspapers 6 pt

Easy On One Side, Meany On The Other

That is why the president of AFL-CIO delivers the blasts. It is part of his job. He is earning his salary when he makes politicians nervous.

As he and other union leaders have been pointing out tirelessly for many years, the issue of whether and how much organized labor should be held answerable for the extraordinary power it has been given is in politics. It is the essence of politics, because organized labor today is the source of the money and the energy keeping the Democratic part of the two-party system alive.

It is, therefore, part of every leading unionist's job to keep his political fences mended. He must keep his side's partisans lined up and full of enthusiasm. He must whip the faint-hearted back into the line of march when they would prefer to fall by the wayside.

He must make the opposition ever-mindful of organized labor's financial resources and person-to-person influence in elections. The main idea in this respect is to keep the opposition off-guard; to discourage it from rallying all its resources at once and perhaps striking a blow the unions could not parry.

BUT WHO IS the opposition?

What is causing President Meany and the other top strategists of unionism to blast off so frequently and so vehemently? What accounts for the fact that Mr. Meany and James R. Hoffa, even Mr. Hoffa and Walter Reuther, can see eye to eye on this when on other matters they are irreconcilable?

Being in politics and being fully and closely informed, these men and their skilled advisers are in possession of information, we suspect, that so far is known only to politicians.

They know how many U.S. representatives and senators are in their pockets, how many are itching to get out and, of course how many they never had in their pockets in the first place. And they are aware of a revolt brewing in the congressional mind against unionism's touch-me-not attitude.

Politicians who stay in office by making more right guesses than wrong ones about voter feeling in their districts and states are weighing the specific question of what will happen if they are recorded one way or the other on labor reform.

UNTIL RECENTLY, they hoped to be able to get off easy with a vote on a bill that would specify procedural reform in unions and skip the hot question of whether to curb unions in their dealings with the public.

But in the House, where the hot question now is being heated still hotter, there are more politicians playing with the idea of genuine reform than Mr. Meany, Mr. Hoffa, Mr. Reuther, John L. Lewis, Harry Bridges or any of the other leading lights of unionism like to think about.

The point is that all unionism's leading lights are leading in the same direction in this respect, and that is part of Mr. Meany's problem. Whether he likes it or not, he and Mr. Hoffa are both interested in the same thing — no reform in unionism. They are working opposite sides of the street, but they are using the same sales talk.

No More Plain Black And White?

Incredible as it seems outside the places where it's credible, Southerners are finding symbolism where no symbolism was intended. The latest one is "The Three Little Pigs," which a Florida legislator thinks should be banned because one pig is black, one is white and one is mixed.

This one isn't quite as silly as the story about the black rabbit and the white rabbit that was offensive in Alabama, but it will do nicely as an illustration of what is plaguing the Deep South.

There is no such thing as plain black and white any more. Everything has to be given significance. The black horses must not win the races. They must not be seen in the pasture with white horses.

All pictures with white leghorns and blackbirds must be banned, because blackbirds can fly higher and make more noise than white birds.

Black printing on white paper will have to go, though that raises a ticklish question. Would white printing on black paper be better, or will everything have to be made fancy — red printing on green paper?

Black-and-white snowscapes such as are common in the North will be subject to ethnic analysis, as will the principal elements of floating crap games. There can be no more black-and-white television, either.

The Deep South, except for philosophers like Harry Golden, who was imported from the North, is losing its perspective — what little it ever had on the color issue. It is Golden, by the way, who points out that if everybody in the South would remain standing the color barrier would disappear. It is only whent hey quit walking about that the trouble starts — like those desegregated pigs living under the same roof and those ruthless rabbits! Tsch, tsch.

Another Approach To Traffic Safety

The heavy traffic toll across the nation and in Ohio during the Memorial Day weekend re-emphasized the need for pursuing every possible approach on behalf of safe driving.

One such approach—which may seem insignificant at first glance, but which makes a lot of sense when looked at more closely—is being sponsored locally by the East Liverpool Fraternal Order of Police Lodge.

It involves a car sticker—"For Safety's Sake, Slow Down And Live. Stop For A Coffee Break"—and is directed at the heavy summertime traffic from now until Labor Day.

Along with the sticker go some suggestions on safe driving. They were outlined when the FOP launched its campaign last week, but are so pertinent that they deserve repeating. They include:

Stay alert on long trips. Stop for coffee every couple of hours, get out of the car, walk around and stretch your legs.

Keep night driving to a minimum. Be especially careful at dusk—the most dangerous driving time of the day.

Know and obey traffic laws. Last year, 62 per cent of all drivers involved in traffic fatalities were violating one or more laws.

Slow down and live. Speed is America's No. 1 highway killer.

As in any campaign, however, slogans and suggestions won't do the trick alone. You, as a driver, must put into practice the lessons they contain.

It could be a matter of life or death.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Mrs. Laura Virginia Douglas, a Brooklyn schoolma'am, is having a banquet thrown for her at the Waldorf to mark her retirement after more than half a century. What makes it news is that this lady is the famous Virginia O'Hanlon whose "Is There A Santa Claus?" letter to the editor brought the reply familiar to almost every fireside in America. How about featuring the banquet through a letter from Santa Claus asking whether there is really a Virginia O'Hanlon and featuring a reply from Virginia?

Dear Virginia: Some of my friends say there is no Virginia O'Hanlon. A word from you would clear it up. Please tell me the truth, is there a Virginia O'Hanlon?

Santa

DEAR SANTA: Your friends who say there is no Virginia O'Hanlon are wrong. They have been affected by the skepticism of a skeptical age. They have read my letter and the editor's reply so often through these many years that they regard them as fictional. They do not think Virginia exists. They do not believe unless they see. Yes, Santa Claus, there is a Virginia O'Hanlon. She exists as certainly as the famous letter and editorial exist.

Did you ever see Virginia O'Hanlon dancing on a lawn? Of course not, and you never will. She has been too busy as a dedicated public schoolteacher. (And not in a dancing course.)

Is Virginia real? Ah, Santa, you should see this banquet. She can hardly believe it.

When she asked, "Is there a Santa Claus?" she was a moppet who never dreamed she was starting something that would become a high mark of Christmas. At times it's been embarrassing. But she is real and alive indeed, and never felt more so than tonight at the Waldorf-Astoria banquet.

All she can say to you is, "Having a wonderful time. Wish you were here."

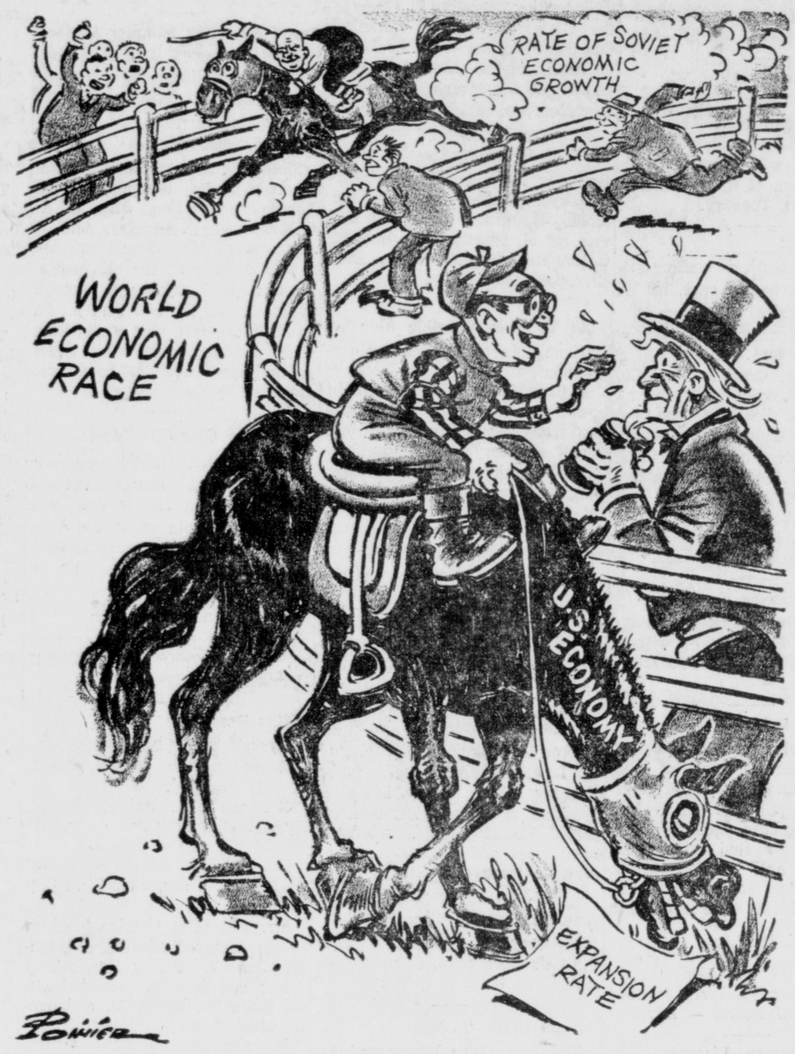
'Quit Worrying, That Nag Can't Beat Us!"



The T-Man's Unhappy Lot

By Ben Cole

The ingenuity of internal revenue agents is a big reason why taxes are inevitable.

Sometimes the T-men almost astonish themselves when they go after unpaid taxes.

One morning recently, the revenue service woke up to find it had acquired 140 reducing salons, seized for an alleged $1,235,000 tax debt.

Not only that, but a Treasury Department official was on the phone demanding angrily, "Where is my wife going to get her reducing treatments? She just contracted for a $500 course with that outfit."

It didn't take the government long to learn it had a pretty lean business on its hands without chubby customers to ring the cash register. The reducing salons are now back in operation under bankruptcy proceedings, trying to roll the unpaid taxes off overweight clients.

Seizing slendering firms is unusual, the revenue agents admit, but they have pounced on circus elephants, truckloads of watermelons and a lonely mule or so in an effort to squeeze unpaid taxes out of citizens.

ONE AGENT in IRS headquarters in Washington returned from lunch recently and spied a convertible parked at the curb on 12th St. NW. He noted the license number from force of habit, rushed inside and discovered the car was an asset he was hunting to satisfy some unpaid taxes. Quickly, he ran outside and slapped a seizure notice on the windshield. As he did so, he was roughly spun around to face a mean - tempered prizefighter who had been inside trying to work out a deal for paying his delinquent taxes.

Two other agents not long ago called on a suburban grocer to learn why he omitted filing income tax returns the last five years. The untaxed citizen seemed rather friendly and made a date with the agents to go over his records that afternoon. When the T-men returned and approached the house, a shotgun was poked out of the door.

"Look out!" yelled one agent, knocking his partner to the ground. The shotgun blast caught one man, wounding him slightly. Fifteen minutes later, the grocer killed himself.

Another agent, hunting for a citizen whose dues were in arrears, found her working in a laundry. Her pay was so small she could barely keep herself, let alone pay her back taxes. The agent simply borrowed her boss's telephone and called a competing laundry. Then he bundled the surprised woman into a taxi and took her to a new, better-paying job.

"He was way out of line, but he was human," the IRS commented.

A high IRS official related how he was sent to seize a mule. He made the seizure all right but the only way he could get the animal to town was to ride it 12 miles over the hills.

An eager agent sent out to seize a tractor-trailer outfit drove into headquarters with a boxcar-load of watermelons.

"Take 'em back! take 'em back! screamed his boss. "We haven't anyplace to keep 'em and they'll spoil for sure. Don't you know a load of watermelons is worth more than the truck you haul 'em in?"

IN WASHINGTON, revenue agents descended on a tax-delinquent after-hours drinking resort. The only asset they could grab was the club's lease. For a few days, the boys were in the embarrassing position of owning an illegal business. They "solved" their problem by selling the lease.

A circus that got behind with its taxes reported over the years that it owned 15 elephants, whose daily feedings were tax-deductible business expenses. Revenue agents sent to seize the elephants for taxes found there were only six. The circus had been playing tricks on Uncle Sam.

"You name it and we've seized it at some time or other," a revenue agent declared. The list extends from abattoirs and bordellos to X-ray machines and zithers.

Once the boys grabbed a drycleaning establishment and actually had to run it for several weeks in order to return the customers' clothes.

"Sometimes we act swiftly to keep the assets from being taken away," an agent explained. "The taxpayers can't tell but what they are being held up by a robber. It's risky. We've got our commissions in our pockets but they won't stop bullets." Often, Uncle Sam grabs the money right out of a tardy taxpayer's cash register with scarcely any prior explanation.

A race horse was seized just after running a race. "We thought there might be a purse and we wanted that, too," the agent said. However, the nag had run out of the money.

A Washingtonian whose sports car was seized ignored the whole affair for several days. Wondering tax agents finally mentioned it to him and found he was unaware it was gone.

Singers who suddenly make a "hit" record are excellent game for the revenue agents if they happen to be behind in their taxes. "A single hit will make $30,000 to $40,000 in just a few weeks," the tax men said admiringly. As the money rolls in, they are on hand to catch it.

ON ONE OCCASION, revenuers set out to seize an ocean liner. "We had no idea what we'd do with it," they said. "Fortunately, a settlement was made before we go to the dock."

Outsmarting citizens who try to outsmart the government is a tough occupation. Agents figure they are keeping the game even for the 99 or more per cent of us who try to do right by Uncle Sam.

"We want to get the best deal we can for the government," tax men declared. "Every once in a while there is a report that a big tax bill has been settled for a few cents on the dollar. What the public doesn't know is that it's the best we can do. Every time it happens, somebody yells, 'Ha! You let that bird get away with millions but you came back at me for $3 of interest I forgot to report.' "

Like the Gilbert and Sullivan cop, the revenue agent feels his lot is not a happy one.

Purely Personal

By Truman Twill

I am supposed to take up a cudgel because small foreign cars are hurting the U.S. auto industry, but darned if I can find a cudgel with the right heft to it. For one thing, I warned the industry that it would happen. For another, it was not my idea to make cars so expensive they would subsidize the competition both at home and abroad.

I can prove without much trouble that the climate of this part of the country is unfit for human habitation 85 per cent of the year —a fact well known to all who endure it, though rarely admitted.

If I am supposed to be alarmed about some one thing going on in this country, I will choose the raucous "Har! Har!" issued from the bull necks of labor bosses whenever they are accused of being as ruthless as the fellows F. D. Roosevelt used to call "malefactors of great wealth."

I didn't know this before, but every time taxes go up the result is reflected in the Consumer Price Index, that slippery little statistic that gives automatic wage boosts to millions of key employes. In case you are hazy about the meaning of the phrase, "built-in engines of inflation," that's how it chugs.

It has crossed a lot of minds since the death of John Foster Dulles that his critics were tired of the problem he had grappled so long, not the man, himself, and that Christian A. Herter, his successor, will suffer the same fate.

I cannot understand why taxpayers ever permit their servants on the public payroll to harass them in any way, shape, or form.

People who remember Huey Long, the "kingfish" of southern-fried, rabble-rousing politics, who came within wishing distance of a Democratic presidential nomination, are impressed with the surmise that his brother, Gov. Earl Long, needs psychiatric care because he flipped his official lid. Huey made a whole career of lid-flipping.

It strikes me that most of the people who urge me to stay calm and keep my shirt on are apprehensive about what might happen if I took my shirt off and got excited. They're not interested in what might happen to them.

I can be as loyal to journalism as anybody, but I wish it could understand the difference between a diplomatic conference and a raid on a clip-joint. I think it is more important to let diplomats talk things out in private than to be quizzed by reporters and mug-shot by photographers.

I always wonder, come June, if campus parting is still the sweet sorrow it used to be, due to my strong impression that young people today are more cool and casual about these things than their forbears were.

Senate Spectacle

Europe Ponders Strauss Controversy

LONDON

The spectacle which the United States Senate is making of itself nowadays is causing a good deal of comment in Europe. It is incredible to most Europeans that a President is evidently not allowed to select his own Cabinet officers without getting the consent of the opposition political party.

David Lawrence

Newspaper accounts tellin_ how the Senate Foreign Relations Committee has undertaken to pass on the qualifications of ambassadors tend to reinforce also the criticisms which have long been made of the American form of government as lacking a sense of responsibility because it permits divided authority.

It was more than 100 years ago that Lord Macauley wrote his famous treatise on the American constitutional system and said it was "all sail and no anchor." Even allowing for the differences between European and American concepts, the fact remains that the prestige of the United States suffers when such picayunish matters as the Senate Foreign Relations Committee has been dealing with lately in passing on ambassadorial appointments are reported in the press of Europe.

THERE IS MORE than a passing interest, moreover, in the case of Lewis Strauss, whose appointment as secretary of commerce has stirred up such a controversy in the U.S. Senate. In Europe, where they heard tales of "witch hunting" and "persecution" under the era of so-called "McCarthyism," newspapermen on European papers are asking what is back of the apparent vendetta launched against Mr. Strauss.

In Europe they know him as the man who helped to prevent Communists from getting atomic secrets and as an official who has had the most cordial relations with Western governments on atomic matters. It is asked whether the pendulum has swung the other way and if the anti-Communists now are the ones being persecuted.

When some of the newsmen who inquire about the issues involved in the Strauss case are told that much of the opposition comes from senators who favor government ownership of electric power projects and that the present secretary of commerce has been opposed to their views, the question then raised is whether the Democratic party is America's Socialist party and whether this is going to be the issue in the 1960 campaign.

The case has come to be talked about abroad as one that is not likely to end if the Strauss nomination is rejected for, despite the statements of various senators who say they are giving objective consideration to it, the fact remains that rarely ever is a Cabinet officer rejected by the Senate and almost never has there been an instance where he was rejected ostensibly for his views on public policy.

City Householders Given Tips To Curb 'Vacation' Burglaries

In connection with a weeklong observance of Burglary Prevention Week which opens Monday, sponsored by the Ohio Association of Chiefs of Police, Chief Americo J. Radeschi today issued 13 tips to East Liverpool householders to help prevent house-breaking cases, particularly during the summer vacation season.

To help emphasize the observance, Mayor Fred P. Lawrence issued a proclamation setting aside the week and asking all citizens to take heed of the suggestions made by the chief.

"Throughout the nation, burglaries cause millions of dollars in property loss annually and sometimes result in bodily harm to the victims," the mayor commented. "I urge every resident of East Liverpool to take heed of the chief's suggestions as a way of discouraging potential burglars."

When a family leaves its home for an evening, a week or a vacation, too often no thought is given to normal precautions, the chief said. Windows are left open, keys are left under the doormat or in the mail box and other signs are left behind indicating an easy entry for a house-breaker, he said.

Here are his suggestions for helping curb burglaries:

Close and lock all windows and doors, including those in the basement, porch and garage. Use pin tumbler cylinder locks on all outside doors.

Leave a lamp or two connected to an automatic timer to turn lights on and off regularly each evening. This makes the home look "lived in" and is a good protective measure. Most families will not need to buy a timer — there's an appliance outlet on the rear of most clock radios.

If you are going away for a weekend or a vacation, notify police of the date you are leaving and the date on which you will return.

Have the Post Office stop mail deliveries to your home while you're away and make certain that no mail deliveries will arrive during your absence.

Cancel milk and newspaper deliveries. An accumulation of milk bottles and newspapers is a sure sign there's no one at home.

If you are on a vacation, have your lawn mowed and your sidewalk swept by a neighbor at least once a week.

Have your phone disconnected if you're going away for an extended visit. Burglars sometimes will call to find if anyone is at home.

Tell one neighbor when you are leaving and ask him to notify police if he sees anyone prowling around your home.

Do not close shades or blinds completely. Leave them as you normally would when at hone.

Never broadcast the news of your departure to the neighborhood at large. Burglars have big ears.

Never leave ladders and tools where outsiders can get at them. To do so is equivalent to giving a thief a key to your front door.

Close your garage doors. An empty garage with the door open is a good sign that no one is at home.

Never leave valuables lying around the house. Place them in a safe deposit box.

Flag Counter Reports 425 Seen At Wellsville

A total of 425 flags were displayed in Wellsville Memorial Day, William Spires, World War I veteran, said today. Spires conducts a flag count each holiday when they are displayed. The count last year was 485.

Spires said several residents were not sure about displaying the flag with the 48 stars but said that it can be displayed even after the new flag with 49 stars goes into official use July 4. The flag was displayed at several new places this year. Another count will be made F[illegible], June 14.

Doctors In 3 States Favor Social Security

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Stephen M. Young (D-Ohio) says physicians and surgeons polled in Ohio, Pennsylvania and New York have favored compulsory social security for doctors, but that the American Medical Assn. and its state affiliates are ignoring that wish.

In a Senate speech Tuesday, Young declared that the associations are silent in requesting congress to provide the remedial legislation.

Banks' Bids Asked

LISBON — Commissioners said they are preparing legal advertisements for bids from banks seeking to be designated as official depositories of the county's active and inactive funds. Active funds now are kept in eight banks and the inactive funds — totaling about $100,000 — are held by 5 banks which pay 1 per cent interest. The bids probably will be opened in July, commissioners said.

Farmers In Hancock Given Wheat Deadline

Any Hancock County farmer who has planted wheat in excess of his farm's acreage allotment is reminded that the deadline for disposing of the excess wheat is June 10, C. C. Herron of the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee said.

If the excess acreage is not disposed of within the permitted time, the farmer will not be eligible for wheat price support or soil bank payments, Herron said.

Notices are being sent to all growers who have excess wheat acreage which must be disposed of before the deadline. Farmers who have any questions about disposal are urged to contact the County ASC office in New Cumberland for information and advice, he said.

Members of the union local met in mass session at Minerva Tuesday night to discuss the strike. The Minerva plant is a subsidiary of the Cronin China Co.

Natural Gas Industrial Uses Detailed By Rotary Speaker

The often forgotten fact that natural gas has many more uses than "heating the morning coffee" was emphasized by a representative of the Ohio Fuel Gas Co. when the Rotary Club met Tuesday noon in the Travelers Hotel.

Miss Jane M. Magruder, information representative from the utility's Columbus office, pointed to the diversified use of natural gas in industry as being of paramount importance in the nation's economy as a "tool, fuel and material."

Seventy-six Rotarians and guests from the East Liverpool office of the Ohio Valley Gas Co. attended.

Miss Magruder highlighted her talk by demonstrating that the clothing she wore "all started as natural gas."

Her handbag of vinyl plastic and her dacron dress and nylon gloves came principally from chemicals in natural gas, she declared, listing other such "miracle products" detergents and dentures.

While more than 5,000 materials are being made from natural gas, scientists have theorized that upwards of 500,000 can be produced, she said.

She described the new science of developing materials from natural gas as "petro-chemistry," which turns natural gas, coal and oil into "something entirely different."

Ohio Fuel now serves one plant in the state that makes ammonia fertilizer from natural gas.

Three-fourths of the plants being built to produce orlon use natural gas as the prime ingredient.

Miss Magruder declared that Ohio's rise to the nation's No. 2 position in industry since 1951 is linked with gas service.

"However, the No. 1 job of the firm is providing gas service for home use, she said.

In response to a question, she confirmed that East Liverpool was the first city in the nation to use natural gas in industrial production, that being in a pottery producing plant.

She was introduced by William T. McIntyre, area manager of the Ohio Valley Gas Co., who was program chairman. Dean Wilhelm, president, presided.

Shippingport Council Considers Income Tax

The possibility of establishing an earned income tax was discussed at the meeting of the Shippingport Council Monday night in the Borough Building.

No action was taken, however, James Russell, president, said.

Council also instructed the borough solicitor, Atty. Frank Suffoletta, of Midland to begin court proceedings against the Courtney Coal Co. for damages to roads caused by strip mining operations.

Council also is organizing a new planning and zoning commission to act as an advisory board to Council. The borough already has a zoning and planning law in effect.

Action Planned In July On Vacation Of Streets

Following through on a request to vacate four unused riverfront area streets, the city is preparing to publish the required legal notice showing that Council expects to act on or after July 20.

Involved are 1st St. between Market St. and Jackson St., Peach Alley between the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. right-of-way and the Ohio River, 1st St. between Union St. and Washington St. and Cherry Alley between the railroad right-of-way and the river.

Law requires the city to give at least six weeks' notice of intention to vacate a street. Petitions requesting the action were filed several months ago. The Milliron Co. requested vacation of one stretch of 1st St. and Cherry Alley. The Parsons Coal Co. and George and Denny Singer, operators of the Pearl China Co. which has a warehouse in the vicinity, requested the vacation of the other stretch of 1st St. and a portion of Peach Alley.

In their wild state, goldfish are generally greenish-brown. Their gold color is produced by careful breeding.

At a recent pack meeting, awards were presented by Eaton to six members. They included Richard Boone, wolf badge with gold and silver arrows, James McCoy, lion badge, and Joseph Kirzan, Thomas Cooper, James Eaton and Thomas Eaton, gold and silver arrows.

Skits were presented by Dens 4 and 5 under the direction of Wanda Hamilton and Joan Halstead, den mothers. The theme was "Musical Hoedown."

Willard Fox, Allegheny County representative, talked on scouting.

The attendance banner was won by Den 1 with Mrs. Leona Reed, den mother. Devotions were led by George Walker, committee chairman, and refreshments were served by Mrs. Frances Walker assisted by the parents. Closing exercises were in charge of Mrs. Bunny McCoy.

THE DIPLOMAS were presented by Leo C. Lawrence, president of the Board of Education, following the introduction of the class by Principal George Hargraves.

Hargraves also introduced Dr. Auer, minister of the Peace Lutheran Church in Galion.

Dr. Auer told the class great living is a challenge to goodness, to service and to courage.

"What constitutes a good man?" Dr. Auer asked. "One who deserves to be trusted with what he has, regardless of what the circumstances of life may be."

He told the audience the only truly successful in life are those whose life has a wide margin of service in behalf of others. "How wide will the margin of service be for you?"

Great living also is a challenge to courage. Courage can be obtained, Dr. Auer said, in proportion to our faith.

—:—

"YOU WILL NEED to continue to have faith in your country and government, and above all, in God and spiritual values," he concluded.

The graduates in caps and gowns entered the auditorium to "March Processional" played by the Concert Band directed by Donald C. Allen. The band played "Prelude to Act V of the Opera 'King Manfred' " as the prelude.

The invocation was offered by John N. Mostoller, minister of the First Church of Christ.

Following the presentation of diplomas, David Buzzard, Senior Class president, led the graduates in the Graduates' Creed and the class sang the Alma Mater.

The benediction was asked by Elder Elmon H. Roy of the Seventh-Day Adventist Church.

The recessional by the band was "Pomp and Circumstance."

THE DIPLOMAS were presented by Leo C. Lawrence, president of the Board of Education, following the introduction of the class by Principal George Hargraves.

Hargraves also introduced Dr. Auer, minister of the Peace Lutheran Church in Galion.

Dr. Auer told the class great living is a challenge to goodness, to service and to courage.

"What constitutes a good man?" Dr. Auer asked. "One who deserves to be trusted with what he has, regardless of what the circumstances of life may be."

He told the audience the only truly successful in life are those whose life has a wide margin of service in behalf of others. "How wide will the margin of service be for you?"

Great living also is a challenge to courage. Courage can be obtained, Dr. Auer said, in proportion to our faith.

—:—

"YOU WILL NEED to continue to have faith in your country and government, and above all, in God and spiritual values," he concluded.

The graduates in caps and gowns entered the auditorium to "March Processional" played by the Concert Band directed by Donald C. Allen. The band played "Prelude to Act V of the Opera 'King Manfred' " as the prelude.

The invocation was offered by John N. Mostoller, minister of the First Church of Christ.

Following the presentation of diplomas, David Buzzard, Senior Class president, led the graduates in the Graduates' Creed and the class sang the Alma Mater.

The benediction was asked by Elder Elmon H. Roy of the Seventh-Day Adventist Church.

The recessional by the band was "Pomp and Circumstance."

LISBON — The Esterly Fence Co. of Youngstown submitted the apparent low bid to the Columbiana County Agriculture Society Monday night for erection of 300 feet of 4-foot fence and 2 gates around the northwest section of the race track at the County Fairgrounds.

County Commissioner Galen Greenisen,, who heads Fair Board publicity, declined to reveal the amount of the bid. The fence will be installed before the fair opens Aug. 25 for a 5-day run.

The board also awarded a contract to Paul Crosser of Lisbon R. D., to repair the 4-H dairy barn at an approximate cost of $300 and to repair the Floral Hall for $500. Greenisen said all material for the 1959 premium book has been delivered to the printers. The books are expected to be released about July 10. More than 26,000 tickets have been distributed to schools for Children's Day, Aug. 25.

More Legal Moves Slated Today In Ohio Murder Case

CINCINNATI (AP)—More legal maneuvering is scheduled today when attorneys for Edythe Klumpp seek to quash a bill of particulars in her murder case.

Her attorneys asserted Tuesday that the particulars furnished by the prosecution are vague, indefinite, uncertain and don't conform with court orders.

Mrs. Klumpp, 41, goes on trial Monday on a first degree murder charge in the death of Mrs. Louise Bergen, 32, whose charred body was found Oct. 31 on the shore of Lake Cowen in Clinton County.

Police quoted Mrs. Klumpp as saying Mrs. Bergen was shot in a fight for possession of a gun. The two had been talking, Mrs. Klumpp said, about Mrs. Bergen seeking a divorce so Mrs. Klumpp could marry her husband, William Bergen.

The bill of particulars says Mrs. Bergen was shot and clubbed with a gun, then confined in Mrs. Klumpp's car trunk for 18 hours.

Boy Killed By Car

CLEVELAND (AP) — Three-year-old William C. Wolff was killed Tuesday when hit by a car as he ran into the street in front of his home here.

Cardboard Plates Bring Arrest For Pittsburgh Driver

Kenneth Smith of Pittsburgh went to jail early today when police spotted him driving along Dresden Ave. with an auto carrying homemade license plates improvised from cardboard.

A second charge was filed against the Pittsburgher for not using spectacles while driving, although a notice on the front of his operator's permit warns: "Must wear glasses."

Smith escaped with a fine of $25 and costs today in Municipal Court for not wearing glasses while driving his car. He told Judge George L. Brokaw he made his own auto tags because a car he formerly owned was wrecked badly, smashing up the license plates, and he was unable to transfer them.

Smith was arrested at 4:43 this moring by Patrolman S. E. Hayes, who reported the Pittsburgher told "five conflicting stories about his license plates."

Meanwhile, Billy Elkins, 801 High St., was fined $5 and costs on a charge that he has not obtained an Ohio driver's license, although he has been a resident of the state two years. He was carrying a valid Pennsylvania driver's license when arrested at 4:49 this morning on High St. Police said he had been warned previously to obtain an Ohio permit.

Gerald E. Garner of Massillon forfeited an $11 bond today on a charge of crossing a double yellow line on Dresden Ave. He was cited Sunday morning.

Ex-Caretaker Leaves $500,000 To Hospitals

CLEVELAND (AP)—A former caretaker and chauffeur left almost a half million dollars to university hospitals here for eye research, according to papers filed Tuesday in Probate Court.

George Simmons, who had worked for the late Henry S. Pickands, a partner in the Pickands Mather Co., apparently amassed his fortune through stockmarket investments.

He had lost almost all his sight when he died March 27 in his 70s.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Perhaps I should be ashamed to write about a petty annoyance when so many people have real problems, but a close friend is driving me cookoo.

She never has a cold—it's always a "virus." A headache is out of the question. Hers must be a "migraine." Stomachache never! Either she has "intestinal flu" or "food poisoning from a bad lobster." Other people may turn an ankle but she always manages to "tear a ligament." Every skin blemish is an "allergy."

The final straw came Sunday night when she had too many martinis and fell down a short flight of stairs. Naturally, she wasn't corked—she had a touch of "vertigo narolepsy."

Why is she like this and what can I do about it?—IRRITATED.

Dear Irritated: Inadequate people exaggerate and dress up their symptoms because it attracts more attention. The poor thing must work her little illnesses and discomforts for all they're worth.

There's nothing you can do about it, so give here the "ear-to-ear treatment"—in one and out the other.

Puppy Love

Dear Ann Landers: Two years ago we came to St. Petersburg to live. After putting in 21 years, my husband decided to retire. He's 47 and I'm 45.

I thought surely after several months of loafing he'd find a job or something to keep him busy. He's in excellent physical condition and we don't need extra money but as a matter of mental health a person needs to be occupied with something.

Last week when he told me he has no intention of going to work I really got depressed. He drives me crazy. He doesn't let me out of his sight. I can't shop or go to the beauty parlor alone. If I want to visit a friend, he's right there.

It's all right for people who are 65 to live like this but I can't stand it. I feel 80 years old. Please tell me what to do before I go off my rocker.—NEVER ALONE.

Dear Never Alone: The problem isn't what you should do—it's what your husband should do. A man 47, in good health, who's been accustomed to working every day, makes a big mistake when he quits cold and settles in his rocking chair to vegetate for the rest of his life. The big tragedy is that he failed to develop some hobbies or interests and can now find nothing better to do than tag along with his wife.

Since you live in St. Petersburg, I suggest you contact the Chamber of Commerce and get a list of organizations and hobby clubs. There are thousands of retired people in your wonderful community and many of them are busier now than they've ever been in their entire lives—and happier, too.

Black And White

Dear Ann: I'm a divorced woman who has been going with a widower for about eight years. We are both 50. He has three daughters who hate me. He has told me this.

Two years ago he gave me his mother's cameo pin as a symbol of our engagement. Three times this year he has asked for it back, I always give it to him. When we make up he returns it.

He drinks too much and when he drinks he's nasty. Twice he hit me, breaking my glasses both times. He just learned he has diabetes and now he wants to get married. He promises to behave better.

I own my own house, he rents his. He wants to move in with me and "pool everything." I have much more than he does. What do you think?—UNDECIDED.

-:-

Dear Undecided: I think you do not want to marry this man and with good reason. You just want someone to spell it out for you, so I am happy to oblige. DON'T MARRY THIS MAN. In fact why bother with him at all?

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Treadwell Army Order Will Not Boost Work

No new employes will be required to handle a $1 million Army Ordnance contract awarded to the Treadwell Construction Co. of Midland, F. G. Gramm, president, said today.

"I can't emphasize too strongly there will be no new employes needed," he said, adding it is doubtful if any furloughed employes will be recalled.

Gramm said the operation will be largely assembling at the Midland plant, which will buy the component parts for the small trailers to be used to carry generators.

The $1,062,535 contract from the Army Ordnance tank-automotive department calls for completion by June 30, 1960, Gramm said.

OMAHA (AP)— Eugene McAuliffe, 92, retired chairman of the board of the Union Pacific Coal Co., died Tuesday after an illness of 10 months. He became president of the railroad coal company in 1923 and was board chairman when he retired in 1947.

Simiam Nearly Escapes From Tent At Carnival

A baboon, which apparently freed itself, was cornered and returned to its cage Monday afternoon in a sideshow tent at the Gooding Amusement Co. carnival at the rear of Westgate School.

Police and firemen hurried to the show grounds after being notified the baboon was loose during the luncheon dismissal at the school.

The simian was cornered before it could escape from the sideshow tent, authorities said, although it slashed a heavy tarpaulin which carnival workers used as a net.

Billed as the "Kongo Killer," the baboon apparently reached outside the cage to slide back a bolt, authorities said.

Police Chief Americo Radeschi and Patrolmen William McDaniel, Tom Walker and Charles Winters along with Fire Chief Charles Bryan and Firemen Andrew Hughes and Ralph Wood answered the alarm.

A Little Of This And That

John Crosby is on vacation. While he is away his column is being written by guest columnists from television.

By JACK DOUGLAS
Author and TV Writer

On Thursday, Aug. 29, 1947, in the bull ring at the Spanish town of Linares, Manolete, the great matador was killed by a bull. This and many other fascinating stories are not included in my new book, "My Brother Was an Only Child."

The present title of the book is substitution for the title I originally wanted to use. I had intended to call it: "How To Make a Million Dollars and Speak Correct English and Be Good Looking and Sexy and Healthy and Well Read and Perfectly Groomed and What Wines to Order With What Courses and Write Popular Music and Learn Taxidermy in Your Spare Time," but just before we went to press, I found out there IS a book with that title.

Just my stinking luck, eh Herbie?

NEVERTHELESS, as a progressive midget once said: "Onward and Upward."

My next book, of course, will be autobiographical. (It's getting to be about that time.) And, let's face it, that's the best kind of book to write nowadays, especially if you're a reformed drunk, or a reformed opium smoker, or a reformed shoplifter.

Of course, I'll be working under a handicap, because I'm not a reformed anything. (It's still going on.)

Nevertheless, as a progressive German midget once said: "Machen Sie sich keine sorgen."

When I was 7 years old, for my birthday my folks let me steal a bicycle of my very own.

When I was 8 years old, I stuck up a candy store. I had to. Although I had been discharged from Lexington as completely cured, suddenly every nerve in my body started screaming — I needed a jelly bean fix.

-:-

JUST MY LUCK they'd run out of jelly beans so I forced Old Man Krine to open the cigar box where he kept the money — and it wasn't a bad haul; $45,000, to be exact.

I hear you saying $45,000 is a lot of money for a neighborhood candy store — but little do you realize that the candy store was just a front. In the back they melted down stolen Volkswagens. (And it didn't take long in a pressure cooker.)

However, back to our ordeal. Old Man Krine seemed to resent the fact that I was sticking him up, so he started to give me some spiel about he always thought I was such a wonderful boy — so neat and tidy, and manly, and kind and sweet, and so I shot him.

THIS ABRUPT change of pace seemed to unnerve him, and as he lay there in a pool of surprise, he had an extremely odd expression on his face, which I assume came from the fact that it probably was the first time in his candy store career that he'd ever been shot in the belly by a Boy Brownie.

(I should say quickly — a disbarred Boy Brownie. I had been drummed out of the troop the summer before because I had refused to salute Gaylord Hauser.)

Needless to say, because of my extreme youth I was not prosecuted for making Old Man Krine porous. And so with my $45,000 tucked safely away in my rompers, I left home in search of adventure. And in less than a week I met the girl of my dreams. And she looked just the way I had pictured her in my dreams. Tall. Short. Thin. Fat. Blonde and Brunette.

We were married at the Radio City Music Hall. After the ceremony she excused herself to go to the ladies' room and I never saw her again. But I read about it in the newspapers. It seems she'd taken a wrong turn somewhere and had been kicked to death by the Rockettes.

From that day to this, I've never felt quite the same toward precision.

Malik Believes Talks Won't Ease Tensions

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Charles H. Malik of Lebanon, president of the U.N. General Assembly, expects neither the present Big Four foreign ministers conference nor a summit meeting to alleviate world tensions.

"The Western powers and Russia are confronting each other with a certain degree of rigidity," he told newsmen Tuesday.

Palestine Pastors Ask Shorter DST

EAST PALESTINE — The East Palestine Ministerial Association Monday night filed a letter with Council requesting the city return to Eastern Standard Time the last Sunday of September instead of continuing Daylight Saving Time through October.

The letter asked the earlier return "in the best interests of the community." In 1958, Council extended DST through October, following a general pattern, but the schools went back to slow time at the direction of the Board of Education.

Council took no action on the request, but recommended the association send a representative to the next meeting June 15 to clarify its reasons.

A summer street improvement program was outlined by Paul Adams, calling for major improvements on Alice St. and E. Martin and W. Martin St., along with repairs on various other streets.

Mayor Paul Merwin reported $541 collected in fines during May.

By JACK DOUGLAS
Author and TV Writer

On Thursday, Aug. 29, 1947, in the bull ring at the Spanish town of Linares, Manolete, the great matador was killed by a bull. This and many other fascinating stories are not included in my new book, "My Brother Was an Only Child."

The present title of the book is substitution for the title I originally wanted to use. I had intended to call it: "How To Make a Million Dollars and Speak Correct English and Be Good Looking and Sexy and Healthy and Well Read and Perfectly Groomed and What Wines to Order With What Courses and Write Popular Music and Learn Taxidermy in Your Spare Time," but just before we went to press, I found out there IS a book with that title.

Just my stinking luck, eh Herbie?

NEVERTHELESS, as a progressive midget once said: "Onward and Upward."

My next book, of course, will be autobiographical. (It's getting to be about that time.) And, let's face it, that's the best kind of book to write nowadays, especially if you're a reformed drunk, or a reformed opium smoker, or a reformed shoplifter.

Of course, I'll be working under a handicap, because I'm not a reformed anything. (It's still going on.)

Nevertheless, as a progressive German midget once said: "Machen Sie sich keine sorgen."

When I was 7 years old, for my birthday my folks let me steal a bicycle of my very own.

When I was 8 years old, I stuck up a candy store. I had to. Although I had been discharged from Lexington as completely cured, suddenly every nerve in my body started screaming — I needed a jelly bean fix.

-:-

JUST MY LUCK they'd run out of jelly beans so I forced Old Man Krine to open the cigar box where he kept the money — and it wasn't a bad haul; $45,000, to be exact.

I hear you saying $45,000 is a lot of money for a neighborhood candy store — but little do you realize that the candy store was just a front. In the back they melted down stolen Volkswagens. (And it didn't take long in a pressure cooker.)

However, back to our ordeal. Old Man Krine seemed to resent the fact that I was sticking him up, so he started to give me some spiel about he always thought I was such a wonderful boy — so neat and tidy, and manly, and kind and sweet, and so I shot him.

THIS ABRUPT change of pace seemed to unnerve him, and as he lay there in a pool of surprise, he had an extremely odd expression on his face, which I assume came from the fact that it probably was the first time in his candy store career that he'd ever been shot in the belly by a Boy Brownie.

(I should say quickly — a disbarred Boy Brownie. I had been drummed out of the troop the summer before because I had refused to salute Gaylord Hauser.)

Needless to say, because of my extreme youth I was not prosecuted for making Old Man Krine porous. And so with my $45,000 tucked safely away in my rompers, I left home in search of adventure. And in less than a week I met the girl of my dreams. And she looked just the way I had pictured her in my dreams. Tall. Short. Thin. Fat. Blonde and Brunette.

We were married at the Radio City Music Hall. After the ceremony she excused herself to go to the ladies' room and I never saw her again. But I read about it in the newspapers. It seems she'd taken a wrong turn somewhere and had been kicked to death by the Rockettes.

From that day to this, I've never felt quite the same toward precision.

Malik Believes Talks Won't Ease Tensions

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Charles H. Malik of Lebanon, president of the U.N. General Assembly, expects neither the present Big Four foreign ministers conference nor a summit meeting to alleviate world tensions.

"The Western powers and Russia are confronting each other with a certain degree of rigidity," he told newsmen Tuesday.

Palestine Pastors Ask Shorter DST

EAST PALESTINE — The East Palestine Ministerial Association Monday night filed a letter with Council requesting the city return to Eastern Standard Time the last Sunday of September instead of continuing Daylight Saving Time through October.

The letter asked the earlier return "in the best interests of the community." In 1958, Council extended DST through October, following a general pattern, but the schools went back to slow time at the direction of the Board of Education.

Council took no action on the request, but recommended the association send a representative to the next meeting June 15 to clarify its reasons.

A summer street improvement program was outlined by Paul Adams, calling for major improvements on Alice St. and E. Martin and W. Martin St., along with repairs on various other streets.

Mayor Paul Merwin reported $541 collected in fines during May.

Council Orders Legislation

Wellsville To Adopt Parking Plans

Legislation was ordered to prohibit parking on 12th St. between Commerce and White Sts. and to set one-side parking on a portion of 11th St., following a lively discussion by Wellsville City Council Tuesday night.

Councilman Ancel Moore, street and light committee chairman, moved the legislation be brought in at the next meeting. He said he had inspected the area and talked with officials of Sterling China Co. on the matter. Pottery property is located on both streets.

The pottery agreed to install sidewalks along 11th St. if one-side parking is enacted. Councilman Dominick Dash said that the pottery has not done things in the past as requested by the city and said he doesn't feel the city should go along with the firm on this matter.

SAFETY-SERVICE Director William S. Robinson pointed out that an open creek near the 12th St. dump of the pottery is constantly being clogged by debris. The officials have been notified of the situation several times in the past but have taken no action, he reported.

Myron Weis, Council president, said he and Moore had inspected the dump but found it satisfactory. Robinson said that just before Weis and Moore went to the site city workers removed about three dozen molds, several boards and baskets and cardboard boxes from the creek. The water flows into a sewer which dams up when a heavy rain occurs, he said.

He also pointed out that the city moved its dump out of the city limits at a great expense and doesn't see why the pottery should be allowed to continue operating its dump.

"All I've ever had is promises, never any action," Robinson said. Councilman J. Frederick Russell said he was sympathetic with Robinson. Weis said he feels the pottery officials have good intentions and that the legislation should be considered on its merit of safety as the area is congested and fire trucks cannot get through.

MOORE'S FIRST motion was to create the parking regulations on both streets between Commerce and White Sts. But later he revised it to apply to between only Commerce and Lisbon Sts. on 11th.

The move was made after Robinson pointed out allowing parking on one-side between Lisbon and White would create another traffic problem in itself and that the autos would block Sterling's parking lot.

Councilman Robert Taggart, a member of the street and light committee, remarked that he thought requests to change parking on streets were to be investigated by the committee. He said he was never invited to make any inspection of the area. He said he did investigate the situation by himself but never with the committee.

Moore replied sharply, "Do you have to have a special invitation?" He also said the meeting was announced during a regular Council session. Taggart agreed that a meeting was discussed but no date or time set.

Dash was the lone dissenter when the final vote was taken on ordering the legislation.

LEGISLATION ALSO was ordered to transfer $150 from the water department to the water bond retirement fund to pay interest on bonds.

A motion that Council dispense with the reading of individual items in the mayor, treasurer and auditor reports met with objections but was passed by a 4-3 vote. Weis remarked that it would speed Council procedure if only totals were read and then any questions could be answered. He also suggested that the reports be posted on a bulletin board for public inspection.

Moore asked, "Is our time so valuable we can't hear a complete report?" Taggart agreed to go along with dispensing with the reading of the mayor's report but said he feels the others should be read.

Moore, Taggart, and Dash voted against the motion and Russell, Paul Nelson, Robert Runyon and Richard Brown approved.

Mayor William J. Shoub's report for May showed a total of $2,486.35 collected in fines and fees.

LEGISLATION WAS passed under suspension of rules appropriating $400 more for the purchase of a new police cruiser. The original appropriation was for $1,800 but this was not enough to cover bids received on a new vehicle. The Board of Control will readvertise.

A resolution authorized the Board of Control to enter into a contract with Atty. Raymond Knepper to serve as fiscal agent in the sale of $300,000 in general obligation bonds to cover construction costs for the city's new sewage treatment plant.

Knepper is serving as fiscal agent for handling of the funds now in bank notes. His fee will be $160. He has received $640 for his past services. Knepper gave a detailed report on the financing program and said the bonds, when sold, will mature over a 20-year period at the rate of $15,000 annually.

The bonds must be issued by Sept. 1 as the present notes expire in October, he said.

COUNCILMAN BROWN, property committee chairman, reported the Hammond Park toilet, which was upset by vandals, has been repaired. The Ruritan Club and several Wellsville Civic groups are working at the park area and clearing additional land, he said.

Solicitor William Bush reported that Council could hold but one meeting each month during the summer months if the schedule is changed by ordinance. Present legislation calls for two meetings each month, he said. Weis had requested a report on the matter at the last meeting.

Council authorized Shoub, or someone appointed by him, to attend the Upper Ohio Valley Development Council industrial tour from Marietta to East Liverpool June 29-30.

Council held a caucus session with the Army Corps of Engineers prior to the meeting to discuss arrangements for purchase of the Homer T. Simms property at 2126 Danbury Ave. along with the McQueen's Run Pondage area.

THE ENGINEERS have asked the city to purchase the home because the cellar is flooded due to drainage from the pondage area. The city has contended it is the engineers' obligation.

Simms spoke from the audience, asking to be kept informed of negotiations. Weis said a "lot of talking was done but no committments made on either side." He said the property committee would meet with Simms privately to bring him up to date.

Mrs. Simms said the house is not livable since the work on the sewer relocation started. The cellar is flooded and tonight "three toads were in my diningroom," she said. She also said "the mosquitoes were terrible and that the smell was hard to live with."

MRS. SIMMS remarked that the smell from the stagnant water and the mosquitoes reached Chester Ave., where residents are circulating a petition asking that corrective measures be taken.

A resident of Commerce St. requested oiling and street lights. He was told the street will be oiled and the finance committee is checking to see if there is enough money to install the lights.

The Rev. E. E. Bacon gave the invocation.

Carroll Kaycees Hold Officer's Nomination

Nominations of officers were received at the meeting of the Carroll Council 509, Knights of Columbus, Tuesday night at the K. of C. Home. James Buchheit, grand knight, presided.

Election will be conducted next Tuesday night.

Plans were completed for the 59th anniversary observance June 10. Dinner will be served at 6 p. m. with Mr. and Mrs. W. T. McIntyre in charge.

The council will receive its quarterly Communion Sunday at the 7:30 a. m. Mass at St. Aloysius Catholic Church.

Grange To Meet

LISBON — A brownie baking contest will be held when the Lisbon Grange meets Friday at 8:30 p. m. in the Grange Hall and Charles Harris, master, will preside for business. Further plans will be made for the annual strawberry and homemade ice cream festival June 27.

Strawberry Growers To Use Packing Plant

LISBON — Strawberry growers of Columbiana and Mahoning Counties have completed arrangements for cooling, grading and selling of their crop at the packing plant of the Salem Fruit Growers Co-operative Association at Greenford, beginning Monday, according to Floyd Lower, county extension agent.

Berries will be packed to meet federal grades and will be sold in quantity to large buyers. The executive committee of the association worked out the plan in accordance with instructions given at growers' meetings.

Council Orders Legislation

Wellsville To Adopt Parking Plans

Legislation was ordered to prohibit parking on 12th St. between Commerce and White Sts. and to set one-side parking on a portion of 11th St., following a lively discussion by Wellsville City Council Tuesday night.

Councilman Ancel Moore, street and light committee chairman, moved the legislation be brought in at the next meeting. He said he had inspected the area and talked with officials of Sterling China Co. on the matter. Pottery property is located on both streets.

The pottery agreed to install sidewalks along 11th St. if one-side parking is enacted. Councilman Dominick Dash said that the pottery has not done things in the past as requested by the city and said he doesn't feel the city should go along with the firm on this matter.

SAFETY-SERVICE Director William S. Robinson pointed out that an open creek near the 12th St. dump of the pottery is constantly being clogged by debris. The officials have been notified of the situation several times in the past but have taken no action, he reported.

Myron Weis, Council president, said he and Moore had inspected the dump but found it satisfactory. Robinson said that just before Weis and Moore went to the site city workers removed about three dozen molds, several boards and baskets and cardboard boxes from the creek. The water flows into a sewer which dams up when a heavy rain occurs, he said.

He also pointed out that the city moved its dump out of the city limits at a great expense and doesn't see why the pottery should be allowed to continue operating its dump.

"All I've ever had is promises, never any action," Robinson said. Councilman J. Frederick Russell said he was sympathetic with Robinson. Weis said he feels the pottery officials have good intentions and that the legislation should be considered on its merit of safety as the area is congested and fire trucks cannot get through.

MOORE'S FIRST motion was to create the parking regulations on both streets between Commerce and White Sts. But later he revised it to apply to between only Commerce and Lisbon Sts. on 11th.

The move was made after Robinson pointed out allowing parking on one-side between Lisbon and White would create another traffic problem in itself and that the autos would block Sterling's parking lot.

Councilman Robert Taggart, a member of the street and light committee, remarked that he thought requests to change parking on streets were to be investigated by the committee. He said he was never invited to make any inspection of the area. He said he did investigate the situation by himself but never with the committee.

Moore replied sharply, "Do you have to have a special invitation?" He also said the meeting was announced during a regular Council session. Taggart agreed that a meeting was discussed but no date or time set.

Dash was the lone dissenter when the final vote was taken on ordering the legislation.

LEGISLATION ALSO was ordered to transfer $150 from the water department to the water bond retirement fund to pay interest on bonds.

A motion that Council dispense with the reading of individual items in the mayor, treasurer and auditor reports met with objections but was passed by a 4-3 vote. Weis remarked that it would speed Council procedure if only totals were read and then any questions could be answered. He also suggested that the reports be posted on a bulletin board for public inspection.

Moore asked, "Is our time so valuable we can't hear a complete report?" Taggart agreed to go along with dispensing with the reading of the mayor's report but said he feels the others should be read.

Moore, Taggart, and Dash voted against the motion and Russell, Paul Nelson, Robert Runyon and Richard Brown approved.

Mayor William J. Shoub's report for May showed a total of $2,486.35 collected in fines and fees.

LEGISLATION WAS passed under suspension of rules appropriating $400 more for the purchase of a new police cruiser. The original appropriation was for $1,800 but this was not enough to cover bids received on a new vehicle. The Board of Control will readvertise.

A resolution authorized the Board of Control to enter into a contract with Atty. Raymond Knepper to serve as fiscal agent in the sale of $300,000 in general obligation bonds to cover construction costs for the city's new sewage treatment plant.

Knepper is serving as fiscal agent for handling of the funds now in bank notes. His fee will be $160. He has received $640 for his past services. Knepper gave a detailed report on the financing program and said the bonds, when sold, will mature over a 20-year period at the rate of $15,000 annually.

The bonds must be issued by Sept. 1 as the present notes expire in October, he said.

COUNCILMAN BROWN, property committee chairman, reported the Hammond Park toilet, which was upset by vandals, has been repaired. The Ruritan Club and several Wellsville Civic groups are working at the park area and clearing additional land, he said.

Solicitor William Bush reported that Council could hold but one meeting each month during the summer months if the schedule is changed by ordinance. Present legislation calls for two meetings each month, he said. Weis had requested a report on the matter at the last meeting.

Council authorized Shoub, or someone appointed by him, to attend the Upper Ohio Valley Development Council industrial tour from Marietta to East Liverpool June 29-30.

Council held a caucus session with the Army Corps of Engineers prior to the meeting to discuss arrangements for purchase of the Homer T. Simms property at 2126 Danbury Ave. along with the McQueen's Run Pondage area.

THE ENGINEERS have asked the city to purchase the home because the cellar is flooded due to drainage from the pondage area. The city has contended it is the engineers' obligation.

Simms spoke from the audience, asking to be kept informed of negotiations. Weis said a "lot of talking was done but no committments made on either side." He said the property committee would meet with Simms privately to bring him up to date.

Mrs. Simms said the house is not livable since the work on the sewer relocation started. The cellar is flooded and tonight "three toads were in my diningroom," she said. She also said "the mosquitoes were terrible and that the smell was hard to live with."

MRS. SIMMS remarked that the smell from the stagnant water and the mosquitoes reached Chester Ave., where residents are circulating a petition asking that corrective measures be taken.

A resident of Commerce St. requested oiling and street lights. He was told the street will be oiled and the finance committee is checking to see if there is enough money to install the lights.

The Rev. E. E. Bacon gave the invocation.

Carroll Kaycees Hold Officer's Nomination

Nominations of officers were received at the meeting of the Carroll Council 509, Knights of Columbus, Tuesday night at the K. of C. Home. James Buchheit, grand knight, presided.

The council will receive its quarterly Communion Sunday at the 7:30 a. m. Mass at St. Aloysius Catholic Church.

Grange To Meet

LISBON — A brownie baking contest will be held when the Lisbon Grange meets Friday at 8:30 p. m. in the Grange Hall and Charles Harris, master, will preside for business. Further plans will be made for the annual strawberry and homemade ice cream festival June 27.

Baker Made It—Able Didn't

One Space Monkey Lives, Other Dies In Operation

WASHINGTON (AP) — Baker made it. Able didn't.

The two monkeys rode 300 miles into space in a Jupiter rocket and came back without a scratch.

Baker, a tiny one-pound squirrel monkey, survived easily Tuesday an operation to remove the electrodes that had been planted under the skins of both for the trip. No anesthetic was used. None was considered necessary for the smaller simian.

But when Able, a seven-pound Rhesus monkey, was placed under an anesthetic for a similar operation Monday night, her heart went into a spasmodic vibration. For more than two hours, doctors did everything humanly possible to get the heart beating again. One even placed his mouth over the monkey's and breathed into her lungs. It was no use.

Baker had no trouble at all when Navy scientists at Pensacola, Fla., removed two of the four electrodes from her Tuesday night. They snipped them out in a couple of minutes. The two other electrodes, put in as spares, will be taken out later.

Baker showed no sign of pain and was as frisky as ever. It was not even necessary to bandage the places where the tiny wire coils were taken out of her chest and under one arm.

The electrodes had sent back important records of heartbeat, respiration and body temperature during the monkeys' pioneering flight last week from Cape Canaveral, Fla.

The data has an important bearing on future space flights of human astronauts.

Scientists had hoped to study both monkeys alive for several years to see if any latent effects of the space trip would show up.

They were bitterly disappointed by Able's death at a laboratory in Ft. Knox, Ky., but some good may come of it. The scientists said a preliminary autopsy showed "absolutely no evidence of any injury" from the rocket ride.

At the Army Medical Research Laboratory in Ft. Knox, scientists said blood plasma that went along in the Jupiter's nose cone showed some signs of damage.

Capt. David P. Cooney said some of the red corpuscles broke down, but less than might be expected. Cooney said improved packaging and better temperature control probably would avoid most of this damage.

Other test materials in the rocket are still under study.

Cooper Named Head For New Traffic Group

William B. Cooper was named chairman of the newly reactivated City Traffic Commission at an organization meeting Tuesday afternoon in the office of Mayor Fred P. Lawrence.

The mayor outlined the objectives of the commission at the hour-long meeting. He announced reactivation of the commission Monday night, explaining it will study traffic and parking problems and make recommendations to Council.

In addition to Cooper, the members are: Donald M. Ogilvie, W. Leland Thompson, Donald L. Burbick, and Paul Bloor. Safety-Service Director Joseph F. Ross, Police Chief A. J. Radeschi and Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper also attended.

The members agreed that Tuesday at 9 a. m. would be the most convenient time for future meetings. However, the frequency of the sessions was not determined. They were given copies of the city code, which includes traffic and parking regulations, and books outlining the findings of Michael Baker Jr., Inc., a Rochester engineering concern, in a study of city traffic that ended in 1955.

In his explanation of the commission's purpose, the mayor asked the members to concentrate on parking problems in both the downtown district and residential areas.

The group agreed that it will seek the aid of other East Liverpool organizations where necessary. For instance, the aid of high school boys' organizations could be sought for detailed studies of traffic or parking problems, the members said.

New Nurse, 9 Teachers Get Hancock Posts

The Hancock County Board of Education announced employment of a Newell woman as new school health nurse and hired nine new teachers for the 1959-60 term at a meeting Tuesday night in New Cumberland.

Mrs. J. Albert Logston of Grant St., Newell, was hired as a school nurse to succeed Mrs. Margaret Remke who resigned.

Resignations accepted included two teachers — one who is retiring after teaching 50 years in Butler District which includes the Weirton area.

Miss Katherine Conlon submitted her resignation after a half-century of teaching. She taught the past year at the Cove Elementary School in Weirton.

The other resignation accepted was that of Mrs. Virginia Hall Rigby of the Chester Central School.

New teachers employed for the next term are: Miss Carol Clear, mathematics and science; Mrs. Chloe Ann Jester, home economics for Wells High School in Newell, and Mrs. Jane Lee Butler Boyd, Miss Norma Marie Chirenza, Mrs. Billie Jewell Dietz, Miss Ann Alatis, Mrs. William Tompos, Donald Orin Campbell and Mrs. Virginia Campbell, all elementary instructors.

In other business, the board accepted the Vance Heating Co.'s bid of $1,145 for installation of hot air heating systems in three schools.

It includes Chester Central school, $238; Weirton Central building, $279, and the Weirton Elementary school, $628. The firm is from Steubenville.

Following a request by the County Education Association, the board authorized teachers to attend a regional convention of the West Virginia Education Association Oct. 26-27 in Parkersburg. There will be no school on dates when teachers are attending the convention.

Permission was granted the Rev. George S. Stewart of the Church of the Nazarene in New Cumberland for use of the high school athletic field on Monday and Friday nights during the summer for a church-sponsored youth athletic program.

Supt. Robert H. Hall, board secretary, was authorized to advertise for bids for two new school buses.

Dr. W. Dale Williams, president, presided. The next meeting is June 15 in New Cumberland High School.

Trees, Bushes Banned In Hancock Cemeteries

The planting of any trees or bushes in Hancock County's cemeteries has been outlawed by county commissioners.

William C. Graham of Chester, Grant District commissioner, said commissioners voted Monday to restrict all planting of pine trees or other varieties in Hancock's six cemeteries in order to prevent pine "thickets from growing."

However, Graham said, residents may plant flowers in the cemeteries as in the past.

Trees growing in the graveyards prevent the caretakers from adequately trimming grass, he said. Commissioners Lyle Virden and Dave N. Thomas and Graham voted against tree planting in cemeteries at a meeting Monday in New Cumberland. There are six cemeteries in the county, including two the county owns at Pughtown.

Committee Maps Campaign For Retarded Children Funds

The fund raising committee of the Columbiana County Retarded Children's Council met Tuesday night with Homer Muse of Lisbon to further plans for the fund drive slated to start late in July.

It was announced the Ohio Farm Publications Co. will distribute pamphlets in rural areas through its salesmen, and a share of subscriptions will be contributed to the Council.

The committee, headed by Don Mackey of East Liverpool, will meet again next week with Mrs. Harry Steinmetz of Lisbon St.

John Billiter of Salem, council president, has explained the time for the drive, usually held in the fall, was advanced so that the funds for operating the schools in East Liverpool and Salem would be available before the opening of the term in September.

Both schools met state requirements last year, Billiter said, adding that the council recently received word of the state approval and the amount of $2,000 in state aid for the 1958-59 term.

Money from the state takes care of one-fifth of the cost of operating the two schools, which totals about $10,000 annually.

There is a possibility that state aid may be increased next year, Billiter said, as there is a bill before the Ohio Legislature recommending $400 aid per pupil in schools for retarded children instead of the $200 now allotted.

The next county council meeting will be held at 8 p. m. June 30 in the Presbyterian Church at Lisbon.

Incompatibility Ruled In Case Of Dual Jobs

LISBON — Prosecutor G. William Brokaw today said he has relayed to Unity and Washington Township trustees an Ohio attorney general's ruling concerning the status of trustees as county highway department employes.

The ruling states such positions are incompatible, Brokaw reported, and he is requesting the township trustees to advise James Bell, Unity Township trustee, and Paul Hart, Washington Township trustee — both members of the County Highway Department — of the ruling.

Both Bell and Hart are expected to resign as trustees.

Court Studies Plea For Writ

Hancock County Circuit Court has taken under advisement a request for a writ of habeus corpus filed by counsel for a city man indicted for manslaughter in the traffic death of a Newell resident.

Judge J. H. Brennan is expected to rule soon in the action filed in behalf of William Swoger, 22, of 1432 Dresden Ave., contending that he is being detained illegally under bond of $1,000, implied by a 1951 negligent homicide statute of the West Virginia Legislature dealing with traffic deaths.

However, Hancock County Prosecutor Frank A. Pietranton has filed a demurrer, contending that Swoger is not being held bodily and asking that the writ be denied.

Swoger was indicted May 18 by the Grand Jury for manslaughter —a misdemeanor—in the traffic death of Howard A. Strum, 44, of Newell April 17 on Route 66.

He pleaded not guilty when arraigned before Circuit Court and was released on $1,000 bond.

The prosecutor's office contends that Swoger cannot be voluntarily surrendered so that the writ may be granted, and also that the writ is directed at Sheriff Clayton H. Hobbs, although he has never held Swogger in his custody.

The negligent homicide statute requires a different degree of proof that Swoger was actually the driver of a sports car that struck Mr. Strum, officials indicated.

Judge Brennan has not overruled the request for the writ of habeus corpus, contrary to other reports.

Swoger's trial was set for Sept. 16 when he was arraigned in May.

New Nurse, 9 Teachers Get Hancock Posts

The Hancock County Board of Education announced employment of a Newell woman as new school health nurse and hired nine new teachers for the 1959-60 term at a meeting Tuesday night in New Cumberland.

Mrs. J. Albert Logston of Grant St., Newell, was hired as a school nurse to succeed Mrs. Margaret Remke who resigned.

Resignations accepted included two teachers — one who is retiring after teaching 50 years in Butler District which includes the Weirton area.

Miss Katherine Conlon submitted her resignation after a half-century of teaching. She taught the past year at the Cove Elementary School in Weirton.

The other resignation accepted was that of Mrs. Virginia Hall Rigby of the Chester Central School.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Exercise Vital For New Mothers

The most important time in a girl's life to take reconditioning calisthenics is after the baby arrives. The day the doctor gives you permission to start exercise, get with it. The first exercise will be very mild, but they will help to retone stretched muscles.

Ida Jean Kain

Right at first you will feel so deliciously flat, exercise won't seem needed. But unless you restore tone to the overly stretched long muscles that brace the abdomen, these muscles will become infiltrated with fat. . . then the spread will be on. You don't want that to happen. Of course you will have the valid excuse that having a new baby leaves precious little time for exercise—of all things!

Make the time. Strongly contractive exercises taken for 10 to 15 minutes a day will save your figure and safeguard your happiness in the years ahead.

HERE IS AN exercise routine that can be put to good use. What if your children are now kindergarten age — is it too late to do something about getting back in shape? Well, the sooner the better, but better late than never. . . come on!

Begin with the well known knee-chest exercise. On hands and knees, head resting on folded arms, keep hips in straight line directly above knees. Contract abdominal muscles forcibly, hold and release. Repeat six times. Relax.

It is always a good plan to exercise from a position that encourages the internal organs to resume their correct position, and this is most important following pregnancy. The following exercise is beneficial.

Position: Lie on back, with knees bent, soles of feet on bed or floor, arms at sides.

Movement: Raise hips and fling arms back over head. Lower hips to first position. Repeat four to six times, depending on your strength. When your muscles are a bit stronger, after a week of exercising, add a strong pull-in and pull up of the abdominal wall as hips are lifted. Do not arch back.

To reach the side-front muscles and flatten the abdomen and slim the waist, do the following exercise:

Lie on back on bed or floor, knees flexed. Have palm of right hand on palm of left hand. Lifting right shoulder off bed, reach over and touch hands to left thigh. Hold for slow count of six.

COUNT OUT loud so as not to hold your breath. Relax, then repeat, lifting left shoulder and touching right thigh.

Never let a day go by that you do not take some exercise to restore bracing tone to the girdle muscles. You'll be forever happy that you did!

Send a long, stamped, self - addressed envelope for illustrated exercise leaflet entitled "After The Baby Arrives." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of this newspaper. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

Vegetable Men To Meet

LISBON—The Columbiana - Mahoning Vegetable Growers Association committee will meet Thursday at 8:30 p. m. at the City Hall in Columbiana to plan the summer field meeting and other activities. Lester Detwiler of Leetonia is president.

Weather Observer Concurs: Heat, Humidity Marked May

"Hot and humid" was the weather theme for May, according to the monthly summary from Edwin Copeland of Millport, U. S. weather observor, who reported temperatures and rainfall above normal.

The average temperature last month was 61.7 degrees, compared to the normal 57.5 degrees for May in Copeland's 66-year records.

Rainfall totaled 4.66 inches, over an inch above the normal 3.43 inches for May, he said.

"High temperatures and abnormal rainfall has everything growing rapidly and ahead of season," Copeland reported.

The temperatures ranged from 89 degrees May 6 to a chilly 27 degrees May 16. Sunshine amounted to 58 per cent, however, which is below the normal 60 per cent for the month.

There were 10 partly cloudy days, 12 clear days and 9 cloudy days, Copeland stated.

May was the fourth month this year with above average rainfall. Precipitation for the first 5 months now totals 18.99 inches — 4 inches above average for the period. The month also had 13 days in which thermometers registered in the 80's, compared to 4 such days in 1958.

The high temperature on May 6 was within 5 degrees of an all-time high of 94 degrees for the date he said. The low mark on May 27 caused little or no damage in the area, he stated.

7,000 Draftees Asked By Army For August

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army asked Tuesday for 7,000 draftees in August. This is 1,000 less than the July quota requested of Selective Service.

It will bring the total of draftees since Korea to 2,456,430.

'Getting To Know God' Will Be School Theme

"Getting to Know God" will be the theme of the Daily Vacation Bible School of the Chester Church of Christ Monday through June 12, C. O. Dotson, evangelist, announced.

The sessions will be held daily from 9 to 11 a. m. Dotson will be director. Teachers are now at work preparing for the school, he said.

Taughannock Falls in New York State are 50 feet higher than Niagara.

GUESS: HOW MANY FRANKIES DID SUPERIOR MAKE LAST YEAR?

HERE'S ALL YOU DO:

1. Obtain an entry blank FREE of charge at your food store, or use the official entry blank in the back of every package of Superior's delicious FRANKIES, the Keener Wiener.
2. Fill in the entry blank. Write on it how many FRANKIES (not pounds) you think Superior made last year. Fill in the other information called for on the blank. It is not necessary to purchase anything in order to enter this contest!
3. Put a stamp on the entry blank and mail it. It's already addressed.

ENTER TODAY AND AS OFTEN AS YOU LIKE!

There is no limit on your number of entries. The more often you enter, the greater your chances to win. Each entry must be on a separate entry blank from a Superior FRANKIES package, or a facsimile entry blank which can be obtained at your dealer without charge. You may be the lucky winner of a year's supply of food, which, based on a U. S. Government estimate for an average family of four, amounts to $1500.00 per year.

The actual number of FRANKIES that Superior made last year is held in a sealed envelope in the vaults of the First National Bank of Canton, Ohio, and will not be revealed until July 13, 1959.

HINTS GIVEN in advertising concerning the contest are rough calculations only, and cannot be taken as 100% accurate. Number referred to is "how many FRANKIES" (not pounds). The year of wiener production referred to is the calendar year of Jan. 1, 1958 through Dec. 31, 1958.

Here are 2 helpful hints:

1. If all the FRANKIES Superior made last year were divided equally among all the Indians living on reservations in the United States, each would receive approximately 145 FRANKIES.
2. If all the FRANKIES Superior made last year were laid end-to-end, they would stretch from Cleveland, Ohio to a point beyond Juneau, Alaska.

Your entry blank is in the back of the package or at your food store.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Exercise Vital For New Mothers

The most important time in a girl's life to take reconditioning calisthenics is after the baby arrives. The day the doctor gives you permission to start exercise, get with it. The first exercise will be very mild, but they will help to retone stretched muscles.

Ida Jean Kain

Right at first you will feel so deliciously flat, exercise won't seem needed. But unless you restore tone to the overly stretched long muscles that brace the abdomen, these muscles will become infiltrated with fat. . . then the spread will be on. You don't want that to happen. Of course you will have the valid excuse that having a new baby leaves precious little time for exercise—of all things!

Make the time. Strongly contractive exercises taken for 10 to 15 minutes a day will save your figure and safeguard your happiness in the years ahead.

HERE IS AN exercise routine that can be put to good use. What if your children are now kindergarten age — is it too late to do something about getting back in shape? Well, the sooner the better, but better late than never. . . come on!

Begin with the well known knee-chest exercise. On hands and knees, head resting on folded arms, keep hips in straight line directly above knees. Contract abdominal muscles forcibly, hold and release. Repeat six times. Relax.

It is always a good plan to exercise from a position that encourages the internal organs to resume their correct position, and this is most important following pregnancy. The following exercise is beneficial.

Position: Lie on back, with knees bent, soles of feet on bed or floor, arms at sides.

Movement: Raise hips and fling arms back over head. Lower hips to first position. Repeat four to six times, depending on your strength. When your muscles are a bit stronger, after a week of exercising, add a strong pull-in and pull up of the abdominal wall as hips are lifted. Do not arch back.

To reach the side-front muscles and flatten the abdomen and slim the waist, do the following exercise:

Lie on back on bed or floor, knees flexed. Have palm of right hand on palm of left hand. Lifting right shoulder off bed, reach over and touch hands to left thigh. Hold for slow count of six.

COUNT OUT loud so as not to hold your breath. Relax, then repeat, lifting left shoulder and touching right thigh.

Never let a day go by that you do not take some exercise to restore bracing tone to the girdle muscles. You'll be forever happy that you did!

Send a long, stamped, self - addressed envelope for illustrated exercise leaflet entitled "After The Baby Arrives." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of this newspaper. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

Weather Observer Concurs: Heat, Humidity Marked May

"Hot and humid" was the weather theme for May, according to the monthly summary from Edwin Copeland of Millport, U. S. weather observor, who reported temperatures and rainfall above normal.

The average temperature last month was 61.7 degrees, compared to the normal 57.5 degrees for May in Copeland's 66-year records.

Rainfall totaled 4.66 inches, over an inch above the normal 3.43 inches for May, he said.

"High temperatures and abnormal rainfall has everything growing rapidly and ahead of season," Copeland reported.

The temperatures ranged from 89 degrees May 6 to a chilly 27 degrees May 16. Sunshine amounted to 58 per cent, however, which is below the normal 60 per cent for the month.

There were 10 partly cloudy days, 12 clear days and 9 cloudy days, Copeland stated.

May was the fourth month this year with above average rainfall. Precipitation for the first 5 months now totals 18.99 inches — 4 inches above average for the period. The month also had 13 days in which thermometers registered in the 80's, compared to 4 such days in 1958.

The high temperature on May 6 was within 5 degrees of an all-time high of 94 degrees for the date he said. The low mark on May 27 caused little or no damage in the area, he stated.

7,000 Draftees Asked By Army For August

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army asked Tuesday for 7,000 draftees in August. This is 1,000 less than the July quota requested of Selective Service.

It will bring the total of draftees since Korea to 2,456,430.

'Getting To Know God' Will Be School Theme

"Getting to Know God" will be the theme of the Daily Vacation Bible School of the Chester Church of Christ Monday through June 12, C. O. Dotson, evangelist, announced.

The sessions will be held daily from 9 to 11 a. m. Dotson will be director. Teachers are now at work preparing for the school, he said.

Haddix Follows Up By Blanking Cards

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

What's better than pitching 12 perfect innings? That's easy: Pitching an eight-hit shutout.

Only Harvey Haddix can make that statement, however. Pittsburgh's slim southpaw a week ago Tuesday night pitched a historic 12 perfect innings, then lost in the 13th. Tuesday night, giving up eight hits and tiring in the late innings, he came home a winner, beating the St. Louis Cardinals 3-0.

"Winning is better than losing, anytime," said Haddix when he compared the shutout with that numbing, 1-0 defeat at Milwaukee in which he permitted just one hit.

With Haddix's first shutout of the season, the third place Pirates stayed within 4½ games of the National League lead after the Cards had wrapped up a 3-1 decision in the completion of a suspended May 3 game.

First-place Milwaukee regained a 2½-game lead over San Francisco as Bob Rush's five-hitter beat the Giants 3-0. Fourth-place Los Angeles fell 5½ games behind with a 5-4 defeat at Cincinnati. The Chicago Cubs were rained out at Philadelphia.

In the American League, Washington defeated Cleveland 3-2 in 10 innings, trimming the Indians' lead to a half-game over Baltimore. The Orioles took second place from Chicago by beating the White Sox 3-2 as unbeaten Hoyt Wilhelm won his eighth. Kansas City held fourth, defeating Boston 5-3, while Detroit skidded New York to seventh, beating the Yankees 2-0 on Don Mossi's four-hitter.

Lindy McDaniel's three-innings of one-hit shutout relief saved Cardinal rookie Gary Blaylock's third victory in the mop up of the suspended game at Pittsburgh. In the regularly scheduled game, the Bucs scored in the third against loser Larry Jackson (3-6) on Bill Virdon's double and Dick Groat's single, then added two in the fourth, capped by Haddix's RBI single.

Haddix (4-3) now has given up just one run — that chiller at Milwaukee — in his last 26 innings.

Rush, a 35-year-old right-hander, gave up nothing but singles for a 4-0 record, a 1.46 earned run average and his first complete game in three starts this season. Stu Miller (3-1) lost it, giving up Ed Mathews' 17th home run in the first inning. The Braves scored their other two in the fifth on Frank Torre's single and an error after a single by Casey Wise and a double by Hank Aaron — who was 3-for-3, padding his average to .424.

The Reds ended their losing slump at three with an unearned run in the eighth against losing Dodger reliever Clem Labine (2-6). Don Zimmer's two-base error, a pinch-single by ex-Dodger Don Newcombe and a sacrifice fly by Johnny Temple did it.

Chester Legion, Golden Star Capture LL Contests

Bobby Maltarich pitched the Chester Legion into first place in the National division of the Little League with a 3-hit, 6-0 victory over McBurneys in one of two contests Tuesday.

In an American League tilt, Golden Star blasted Millirons, 12-1, to take over second place in the American division.

Maltarich struck out 11 and walked only three in going the distance for the Chester Legion Pirates.

He received support from Walt Elliott who clouted his second home run in two games, a three-run homer in the fifth inning when the Legion scored all of its runs.

Bill Wright and Kenny Brewer added doubles for the winners.

A home run and triple by Charles Taylor featured Golden Star's 12-hit attack against Millirons Tuesday.

Eight runs in the fifth inning was the turning point for the Dairymen.

Larry Stitler was the winning pitcher and gave up four hits. He helped his own cause with a pair of doubles.

Bob Burkhart collected three hits for Golden Star including a double.

Baltimore Drops Chicago To Third

Orioles Move Within A Half Game Of Tribe

By The Associated Press

Hoyt Wilhelm and Don Mossi, a couple of relievers gone square, and Tom Sturdivant, an expendable world champion, are pitching the American League topsy-turvy.

Wilhelm, the unbeaten right-hander who was waived out of the National League, was upset by a swarm of gnats but won his eighth in a row Tuesday night, hoisting Baltimore into second place with a 3-2 victory over the Chicago White Sox.

That left the stumbling White Sox in third and the Birds just a half-game shy of first place Cleveland, beaten 3-2 by Washington in 10 innings.

Mossi, the lefty who was washed up when Cleveland peddled him to Detroit last winter, beat New York for the third time this season, ending the Yankees' winning streak at four with a four-hit, 2-0 decision although the Tigers had only one hit for eight innings against three pitchers. It was the first shutout by Detroit's staff, and the seventh suffered by the Yankees.

Sturdivant, the big right-hander the Yankees traded to Kansas City last week, gained his first victory with 7 1-3 innings of four-hit shutout relief that beat Boston 5-3. That pushed the fourth-place A's within 2½ games of the lead and also kept the Yankees, who skidded to seventh, from replacing Boston in the cellar.

In the National League, Milwaukee regained a 2½-game lead over San Francisco as Bob Rush beat the Giants 3-0 with a five-hitter. Pittsburgh held third by beating St. Louis 3-0 behind Harvey Haddix's eight-hit pitching after the Cards had pocketed a 3-1 victory in the completion of a game suspended May 3. Cincinnati defeated Los Angeles 5-4. Chicago at Philadelphia was rained out.

Wilhelm, 35, who has a nine-game streak in a carry-over from last season, found himself in the middle of the gnats in the first inning at Chicago after giving up a one-out walk. When all else — burning paper, towels and bug spray—failed, the gnats finally were chased by a firecracker bomb ordered exploded by White Sox president Bill Veeck.

The bugs did upset Wilhelm enough to end his shutout string at 22 1-3 innings—the White Sox scored on their only other walk, a hit batter and an infield out after the 16-minute delay—but he came off a winner again with a seven-hitter.

The Orioles came from behind against loser Bob Shaw (4-2) on Billy Klaus' tying, two-run homer in the sixth, then won it in the ninth on consecutive singles by Willie Tasby, Gene Woodling and Gus Triandos.

Rom Samford's homer off loser reliever Bud Podbielan won for Washington. The Nats had taken a 2-1 lead in the sixth on rookie Bob Allison's solo 10th homer off Mudcat Grant. Cleveland tied it again in the eighth on a walk, Woody Held's double and a sacrifice fly by Vic Power, who had homered for the first Tribe run. Pete Ramos (6-5) went all the way for the Nats.

Mossi (4-2) won his fifth in a row over the Yankees as the Tigers, who finished with three hits, beat Duke Maas (3-3) with single runs in the second and third. Their only hit in the first eight frames came in the second, when Mossi's sacrifice fly made it 1-0 after a walk and Frank Bolling's single. The third-inning run scored on an error, walk and two long flies.

Sturdivant (1-2), who needed Rip Coleman's help when he tired in the ninth, relieved starter Ray Herbert after the Red Sox scored three in the first. The A's took the lead against loser Frank Sullivan (2-4) in a three-run third capped by Hal Smith's two-run double.

Ted Williams had only one hit, a double in the big Boston first, but it was his 2,500th in the majors.

Shaw Slated To Pitch In City League Today

Cox Construction will take the field tonight at 6 to defend their City League championship. Lawrenceville will provide the competition for Cox's at Patterson Field.

Scheduled to pitch for the Lawrenceville nine is Chester's Don Shaw, who was signed earlier this week by the Chicago Cubs. Shaw's appearance tonight will mark his last for a while in the City League since he will report to the Cubs' minor league team on June 13.

Cox's has most of last year's squad back with mound ace Dick Chamberlain, Stan Franczek, Bernie Allen, George Hale, Lorin Howard, John Laneve, Bob Campbell Jr., and several others.

Tuesday's game between the Merchants and Irondale was postponed because of graduation at the district high schools.

Samford's Homer Nips Indians, 3-2

CLEVELAND (AP) — Ronnie Samford, Washington's little shortstop who says "every time I hit a home run it surprises me," socked a big one Tuesday night to beat the slumping Cleveland Indians.

It came in the 10th inning and sent the American League leaders to a 3-2 defeat, their fourth in a row. Cleveland now leads Baltimore by a half game.

Samford, who was batting around .250, picked on a 2-1 pitch by Bud Podbielan and sent it soaring into the left field stands.

"It was too close to take," the 155-pound Samford said of the pitch he connected on. "I thought I hit the ball good enough to take it over the fence. Then I saw (Minnie) Minoso backing up as though he had it."

The ball cleared Minoso's desperation leap.

Before this season, the 29-year-old Samford never had hit a homer in the major leagues. Now he has three. He said he hit 15 homers at Sioux City in 1951 and 12 at Minneapolis in 1953.

He frankly figured Washington Manager Cookie Lavagetto would lift him for a pinch-hitter if catcher Hal Naragon got on base ahead of him.

"I hadn't seen the pitcher (Podbielan) before, but his first three pitches were good breaking balls. Then he just came in with a bad pitch or a good one for me," Samford said.

"Every time I hit a home run it surprises me," Samford congessed.

The Indians managed only seven hits off pitcher Pedro Ramos, including Vic Power's home run in the fourth inning. Power also drove in Cleveland's other run with a long sacrifice fly to right field in the eighth frame.

Washington scored first on a pair of singles and a throwing error by third baseman Jim Baxes in the fourth. The second run was counted on Bob Allison's 10th homer in the fifth.

Despite the Indians' poor hitting, their pitching remains good. Jim (Mudcat) Grant permitted only five hits in the eight innings he worked. Podbielan worked the ninth and 10th frames. Samford's homer was the only blow he permitted.

Herb Score (5-2) goes for the Indians tonight against Washington's Bill Fischer (4-1).

Haddix Follows Up By Blanking Cards

By ED WILKS

What's better than pitching 12 perfect innings? That's easy: Pitching an eight-hit shutout.

Only Harvey Haddix can make that statement, however. Pittsburgh's slim southpaw a week ago Tuesday night pitched a historic 12 perfect innings, then lost in the 13th. Tuesday night, giving up eight hits and tiring in the late innings, he came home a winner, beating the St. Louis Cardinals 3-0.

"Winning is better than losing, anytime," said Haddix when he compared the shutout with that numbing, 1-0 defeat at Milwaukee in which he permitted just one hit.

With Haddix's first shutout of the season, the third place Pirates stayed within 4½ games of the National League lead after the Cards had wrapped up a 3-1 decision in the completion of a suspended May 3 game.

First-place Milwaukee regained a 2½-game lead over San Francisco as Bob Rush's five-hitter beat the Giants 3-0. Fourth-place Los Angeles fell 5½ games behind with a 5-4 defeat at Cincinnati. The Chicago Cubs were rained out at Philadelphia.

In the American League, Washington defeated Cleveland 3-2 in 10 innings, trimming the Indians' lead to a half-game over Baltimore. The Orioles took second place from Chicago by beating the White Sox 3-2 as unbeaten Hoyt Wilhelm won his eighth. Kansas City held fourth, defeating Boston 5-3, while Detroit skidded New York to seventh, beating the Yankees 2-0 on Don Mossi's four-hitter.

Lindy McDaniel's three-innings of one-hit shutout relief saved Cardinal rookie Gary Blaylock's third victory in the mop up of the suspended game at Pittsburgh. In the regularly scheduled game, the Bucs scored in the third against loser Larry Jackson (3-6) on Bill Virdon's double and Dick Groat's single, then added two in the fourth, capped by Haddix's RBI single.

Haddix (4-3) now has given up just one run — that chiller at Milwaukee — in his last 26 innings.

Rush, a 35-year-old right-hander, gave up nothing but singles for a 4-0 record, a 1.46 earned run average and his first complete game in three starts this season. Stu Miller (3-1) lost it, giving up Ed Mathews' 17th home run in the first inning. The Braves scored their other two in the fifth on Frank Torre's single and an error after a single by Casey Wise and a double by Hank Aaron — who was 3-for-3, padding his average to .424.

The Reds ended their losing slump at three with an unearned run in the eighth against losing Dodger reliever Clem Labine (2-6). Don Zimmer's two-base error, a pinch-single by ex-Dodger Don Newcombe and a sacrifice fly by Johnny Temple did it.

2 Horses Warming Up Killed In Headon Crash

STANTON, Del. (AP) —Head-on collision killed two horses taking warmup runs at Delaware Park Tuesday just before the seventh race. Both jockeys escaped serious injury.

The accident occurred on the far turn when the horses Die Valkyrie, ridden by Paul Bohenko, and King's Chapel, with jockey Sam Boulmetis aboard, ran into each other. Both horses were entered to be claimed for $5,000 but no claims had been filed on either. They died within minutes of the accident.

Major League Club Owners Approve 2nd All-Star Game

Contest Awaits Official OK By Commissioner

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The major league club owners have approved the players' request for a second All-Star game this season.

The game, which must receive the blessing of Commissioner Ford Frick to become official, will be played on Monday, August 3, at the Los Angeles Coliseum.

The players will receive 60 per cent of the gate and radio-TV receipts, with the remainder going to the club owners, who would use the additional cash to aid youth baseball programs such as the Little League and Babe Ruth loop.

The players may possibly use their share of the cash to set up a pension plan for umpires and help former players not currently benefitted by the pension plan. The players share of the first game, to be played in Pittsburgh July 7, goes into their pension fund.

Frick is expected to announce his decision next week after conferring with Presidents Warren Giles of the National League and Joe Cronin of the American.

It was Cronin who disclosed the owners' endorsement of the second All-Star game after two National League executives — President Bob Carpenter of the Philadelphia Phillies and Vice President Birdie Tebbetts of the Milwaukee Braves — said the owners had voted for it at a meeting in Columbus, Ohio, two weeks ago.

"The owners have authorized the second game at the players' request," said Cronin, "but as far as we have been informed no details have been worked out."

Giles said he expected to meet with Frick and Cronin in New York some time next week to iron out details.

Frick was not available for comment.

Carpenter appeared surprised at the secrecy shrouding the second All-Star game.

"Why sure it's so," he said. "The whole thing was approved by all the owners in both major leagues a couple of weeks ago at the baseball meetings in Columbus. The only thing remaining now is to work out a radioa nd television deal."

It was not an unanimous vote. At least six clubs — Boston, Washington, Cleveland, Chicago and Kansas City in the American League and San Francisco in the National — are believed to be opposed to it. Three of the antis have said, however, they would go along with the majority.

One of the more vociferous objectors was Frank Lane, general manager of the Indians.

"Two All-Star games make as much sense as two Kentucky Derbies or two World Series," he said.

Robinson Still Holds Crown In New York

By WHITNEY MARTIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) —Ray Robinson still is world middleweight champion in New York, but Carmen Basilio is making plans to fight someone else for the title.

The New York State Athletic Commission decision to overlook technicalities and allow Sugar Ray to retain a crown he has not defended since March 25, 1958, was deeply resented by Basilio, the No. 1 challenger.

After the commission hearing, attended by both Robinson and Basilio, Tuesday, Basilio telegraphed National Boxing Assn. officials expressing his readiness to sign for a title bout with Gene Fullmer as decreed by the NBA. The NBA already had stripped Robinson of the championship.

The commission decision was based on public interest in the title and recognition of a contract between Robinson and Sam Rose of Philadelphia for a Basilio-Robinson fight in that city.

Basilio did not sign the contract, which called for him to receive a minimum of $250,000, or 20 per cent of the proceeds, with Robinson getting 45 per cent.

"I want a chance to dicker about terms," Basilio said. "They're telling me what I got to take."

Robinson, who said "justice has prevailed," accused Basilio of refusing his offer to make more money than he ever made for a fight before so he could fight a man (Fullmer) Robinson had knocked out.

Claims 11 Schoolboy Titles

Ohio's Northeast Section Dominated Sports Scene

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's populous northeastern sector looked back today upon its most successful high school sports year as the 1958-59 scholastic campaign came to a close.

Of 15 team and invidiaual championships decided by the schoolboy athletes, 11 went to the northeastern district. The southwestern district was next with two, and single titles went to the eastern and northwestern sectors.

Five schools repeated their 1957-58 triumphs this year, Cleveland East Tech in Class AA basketball, Cincinnati Elder in Class AA baseball, Shaker Heights in golf, Canton McKinley in swimming, and Akron North in cross-country.

Piling up the huge margin for the upper right-hand corner of the state were:

Cross-country: Akron North; individual—Ray Fleming of Akron North, who made the two miles in 9:59.9.

Swimming: Canton McKinley.

Class A baseball: New Salem Northwestern (Wayne County).

Class AA track: Cleveland Glenville.

Golf: Shaker Heights; individual—Earl Weiss, Shaker Heights.

Football: Alliance.

Class AA basketball: Cleveland East Tech.

Only event on the scholastic agenda prior to next fall's grid season is the 14th annual North-South football game Aug. 15 at Canton.

Another big chance in that one has popped up as Bron Bacevich of Cincinnati Roger Bacon replaces Dayton Fairmont's Dave Puddington as coach of the Rebel team. Puddington has moved to Kent State University as an assistant, making him ineligible for the all-star job.

Thus both original head coaching choices have bowed out of the August extravaganza. Earlier, Gordon Larson of Marion Harding moved to Ohio State's staff and turned the Yankee position over to Fred George of Cleveland Cathedral Latin.

The changes were made under an NCAA ruling that coaches of member colleges may not participate in scholastic all-star games.

Kansas City Monarchs Face Memphis At Midland Friday

The Kansas City Monarchs, who have participated in more than 25 Negro American League World Series and winners of 15 playoffs will appear at Midland Friday. Game time is 6 p. m.

The Monarchs will oppose the Memphis Red Sox, also of the Negro American League.

A productive crop of former Monarch players have made their way to the major leagues.

Among them were Jackie Robinson, Satchel Paige, Ernie Banks, Gene Baker, Elston Howard, Hank Thompson and many others.

One of the Monarchs standouts is Ira McKnight of South Bend, Ind. He catches and plays the outfield and batted .321 last season.

The Kansas City pitching staff is headed by Jessie Townsend, who looks like a definite prospect for the majors. Last year in one game Townsend struck out 23 batters. Another mainstay is Ben Adams.

Last season the Monarchs won the Negro American League pennant.

The Memphis Red Sox finished in second place last year only two games behind the Monarchs.

Willie White, a hustling outfielder with a strong throwing arm, is one of the stars for the Red Sox.

Curtis Williams heads the pitching staff and last year led the league in strikeouts with 190 and had a 14-4 record.

The Red Sox also have a neat fielding shortstop in Albert Strozier, who is also rated a topnotch hitter.

Arrangements for the appearance of these two clubs were made by Art Petrosky, manager of the Midland USW nine.

Nonpareil Club Approves Training Room At Field

The Blue and White Nonpareil Club Tuesday approved the plans and construction of a new training room at Patterson Field.

The plans were submitted by Frank Dawson, who is chairman of a committee for the new training room.

Minor Little League Sets Meeting Tonight

The Minor Little League will meet tonight at 8 at the Travelers Hotel.

The new addition, which will be built underneath the present concrete stadium, will cost some $700.

The project will now await approval from the Board of Education.

The club will also purchase 35 tickets to the Purdue-Ohio State football game at Columbus next fall and pay expenses for the East Liverpool High School football team to attend the game.

Swedish Fighter Promoter Slated To Testify Today

NEW YORK (AP) — Swedish heavyweight challenger Ingemar Johansson and Edwin Ahlquist, a promoter - manager in Sweden, were scheduled to testify today whether there ever was a fighter-manager relationship between the two.

Johansson and Ahlquist were to make their federal court appearance in answer to a charge by California heavyweight Eddie Machen that Johansson ran out of a return bout with him after the Swede had scored a first round knockout over Machen last Sept. 14.

Machen is seeking an injunction to prevent Johansson from meeting Floyd Patterson for the heavyweight title at Yankee Stadium, June 25. He contends Ahlquist, acting as Johansson's manager, signed for a return bout on Sept. 15, 1958.

Atley Registers TKO Over Lewis In First

SPOKANE (AP) — Earl Atley scored a one - round technical knockout of Spokane's previously undefeated heavyweight Terry Lewis Tuesday night with three solid left hooks to the jaw.

Lewis, who had won 16 of his 17 fights by knockouts, took a terrific left in the opening minute and went down. He got up but was wobbly.

Atley landed the left again and Lewis went down for eight. He staggered toward Atley but a third left dumped him in the middle of the ring.

It was a technical knockout at 1:07 of the first. Lewis weighed 237. Atley, from Kennett Square, Pa., 196.

After the commission hearing, attended by both Robinson and Basilio, Tuesday, Basilio telegraphed National Boxing Assn. officials expressing his readiness to sign for a title bout with Gene Fullmer as decreed by the NBA. The NBA already had stripped Robinson of the championship.

The commission decision was based on public interest in the title and recognition of a contract between Robinson and Sam Rose of Philadelphia for a Basilio-Robinson fight in that city.

Basilio did not sign the contract, which called for him to receive a minimum of $250,000, or 20 per cent of the proceeds, with Robinson getting 45 per cent.

"I want a chance to dicker about terms," Basilio said. "They're telling me what I got to take."

Robinson, who said "justice has prevailed," accused Basilio of refusing his offer to make more money than he ever made for a fight before so he could fight a man (Fullmer) Robinson had knocked out.

Claims 11 Schoolboy Titles

Ohio's Northeast Section Dominated Sports Scene

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's populous northeastern sector looked back today upon its most successful high school sports year as the 1958-59 scholastic campaign came to a close.

Of 15 team and invidiaual championships decided by the schoolboy athletes, 11 went to the northeastern district. The southwestern district was next with two, and single titles went to the eastern and northwestern sectors.

Five schools repeated their 1957-58 triumphs this year, Cleveland East Tech in Class AA basketball, Cincinnati Elder in Class AA baseball, Shaker Heights in golf, Canton McKinley in swimming, and Akron North in cross-country.

From outside the northeastern district, the lone championship winners were Elder in baseball West Alexandria in Class A track, Bridgeport in wrestling, and Edgerton in Class A basketball.

Piling up the huge margin for the upper right-hand corner of the state were:

Cross-country: Akron North; individual—Ray Fleming of Akron North, who made the two miles in 9:59.9.

Swimming: Canton McKinley.

Class A baseball: New Salem Northwestern (Wayne County).

Class AA track: Cleveland Glenville.

Golf: Shaker Heights; individual—Earl Weiss, Shaker Heights.

Football: Alliance.

Class AA basketball: Cleveland East Tech.

Only event on the scholastic agenda prior to next fall's grid season is the 14th annual North-South football game Aug. 15 at Canton.

Another big chance in that one has popped up as Bron Bacevich of Cincinnati Roger Bacon replaces Dayton Fairmont's Dave Puddington as coach of the Rebel team. Puddington has moved to Kent State University as an assistant, making him ineligible for the all-star job.

Thus both original head coaching choices have bowed out of the August extravaganza. Earlier, Gordon Larson of Marion Harding moved to Ohio State's staff and turned the Yankee position over to Fred George of Cleveland Cathedral Latin.

The changes were made under an NCAA ruling that coaches of member colleges may not participate in scholastic all-star games.

Kansas City Monarchs Face Memphis At Midland Friday

The Kansas City Monarchs, who have participated in more than 25 Negro American League World Series and winners of 15 playoffs will appear at Midland Friday. Game time is 6 p. m.

The Monarchs will oppose the Memphis Red Sox, also of the Negro American League.

A productive crop of former Monarch players have made their way to the major leagues.

Among them were Jackie Robinson, Satchel Paige, Ernie Banks, Gene Baker, Elston Howard, Hank Thompson and many others.

One of the Monarchs standouts is Ira McKnight of South Bend, Ind. He catches and plays the outfield and batted .321 last season.

The Kansas City pitching staff is headed by Jessie Townsend, who looks like a definite prospect for the majors. Last year in one game Townsend struck out 23 batters. Another mainstay is Ben Adams.

Last season the Monarchs won the Negro American League pennant.

The Memphis Red Sox finished in second place last year only two games behind the Monarchs.

Willie White, a hustling outfielder with a strong throwing arm, is one of the stars for the Red Sox.

Curtis Williams heads the pitching staff and last year led the league in strikeouts with 190 and had a 14-4 record.

The Red Sox also have a neat fielding shortstop in Albert Strozier, who is also rated a topnotch hitter.

Arrangements for the appearance of these two clubs were made by Art Petrosky, manager of the Midland USW nine.

BEN ADAMS
Top Hurler With Monarchs.

Jimmy Norris of Coleman, Tex., at 6-foot-1, is the tallest halfback on the Hardin-Simmons football team.

The club will also purchase 35 tickets to the Purdue-Ohio State football game at Columbus next fall and pay expenses for the East Liverpool High School football team to attend the game.

Swedish Fighter Promoter Slated To Testify Today

NEW YORK (AP) — Swedish heavyweight challenger Ingemar Johansson and Edwin Ahlquist, a promoter - manager in Sweden, were scheduled to testify today whether there ever was a fighter-manager relationship between the two.

Johansson and Ahlquist were to make their federal court appearance in answer to a charge by California heavyweight Eddie Machen that Johansson ran out of a return bout with him after the Swede had scored a first round knockout over Machen last Sept. 14.

Machen is seeking an injunction to prevent Johansson from meeting Floyd Patterson for the heavyweight title at Yankee Stadium, June 25. He contends Ahlquist, acting as Johansson's manager, signed for a return bout on Sept. 15, 1958.

Atley Registers TKO Over Lewis In First

SPOKANE (AP) — Earl Atley scored a one - round technical knockout of Spokane's previously undefeated heavyweight Terry Lewis Tuesday night with three solid left hooks to the jaw.

Lewis, who had won 16 of his 17 fights by knockouts, took a terrific left in the opening minute and went down. He got up but was wobbly.

Atley landed the left again and Lewis went down for eight. He staggered toward Atley but a third left dumped him in the middle of the ring.

It was a technical knockout at 1:07 of the first. Lewis weighed 237. Atley, from Kennett Square, Pa., 196.

FIELD AND STREAM

By R. L. LIDE

Bow and arrow fishermen will find good shooting in the shallow bays of Lake Guilford.

The carp can be seen in large numbers at different times of the day.

Be sure you have a good strong line, since some of the carp no doubt will be in the 30-pound class. They don't seem to have a set pattern as to when they will be active. Could be early in the morning, around noon or late in the afternoon. They seem to be spawning, although some of them are feeding on the vegetation carp style.

They draw a mouthful of sediment from the lake bottom then blow it out in the water and feed on the floating particles to their liking. Doesn't take them long to muddy up the portion of the lake where they are feeding.

YOU CAN get a good idea of the size of the fish by the part of their backs which appear just above the water surface.

Last year one bow hunter bagged two with one shot. It was witnessed by five people. I would like to see the bow and arrow fishermen gang up on the carp; the more they take the better. In other words, good hunting and good riddance.

The water temperature is 76 degrees and people are beginning to flock to the improved swimming beach recently constructed by the Ohio Division of Parks. The sanitary facilities are under construction and should be completed soon.

Hundreds of people enjoyed the Memorial Day week-end at Guilford. The camp sites were well filled and practically all the picnic tables were in use.

ONE THING some people have to learn the hard way is just how much sun the body can withstand without the ill effects of reddened skin, or worse yet becoming blistered. One lady was lying face down in the direct sunlight and I thought she was wearing a red scarf until I got close enough to see she was practically on fire and did not realize it.

Absorbing sunlight by degrees and obtaining a resaonable tan is fine, but if you ever had a severe sunburn from there on in you will learn not to overdo it. You can get burnt on a cloudy day. In fact I keep a coat of tan all year 'round, including the wind burns in the winter time.

You can tell a man who makes his living in the out-of-doors, since he never looses all his summer tan. Most farmers are tanned to the point where they are as dark as the American Indian.

Fishing in our local lakes has not been good for the last week.

The summer weather we had earlier seems to keep the larger fish out in the deep waters where the temperature is about 5 degrees lower than that near the shoreline.

If you plan to go fishing, you might as well begin at daybreak, knock it off about 9 a. m. then start again and fish until dark or after.

Brown Risks Title Tonight

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—"Fighting is my business," says lightweight champion Joe Brown. To prove his point, the 33-year-old ruler risks his crown for the seventh time when he takes on dangerous Paolo Rosi at Uline Arena tonight. The 15-rounder will be telecast nationally starting at 10 p.m. DST.

Commissions don't have to worry about making Old Bones from Houston live up to the six months defense rule. The aging but still slick champ is 'way ahead of schedule.

This could be the toughest of all his defenses of the crown he won from Wallace (Bud) Smith nearly three years ago. Rosi, a bony, wide-shouldered boxer-puncher, probably is the hardest hitter among the contenders.

The 31-year-old Italian-born New Yorker has run up an unbeaten streak of nine in the last two years. Although he is the No. 3 contender, he still is a hungry fighter. Paolo hasn't had too many big paydays since he started fighting for cash eight years ago in Italy.

The odds-makers figure Rosi will be the one to hit the deck. They have made the champion a 3-1 favorite.

Rosi's record is 31-4-1 including 13 knockouts, most of them scored with a slashing left hook.

Soft tissue over his jutting brows make Rosi vulnerable to cuts. You can be sure Brown will be stabbing away at the target.

Injuries Shelve O'Toole, Lawrence At Cincinnati

CINCINNATI (AP)—The pitching - poor Cincinnati Reds may face poverty now, and injuries are the immediate cause.

The problems:

Starter Brooks Lawrence pulled a muscle in his pitching arm Tuesday night against Los Angeles and his status is still uncertain.

Rookie Jim O'Toole, a bright—if wild—prospect is still in St. Francis Hospital with much stitching in his head and lip after an auto crash.

Those are two of the reasons why Orlando Pena, also a rookie and normally a relief pitcher, will start on the mound tonight for Cincinnati.

The Reds had pitching trouble and base-running trouble Tuesday night. But form was on their side and they beat the Dodgers, 5-4, on an unearned run.

Starter Don Drysdale was chased in the seventh inning when Cincinnati belted four hits, including a double, but realized only one run.

Johnny Temple and Vada Pinson started the innings with singles. But Temple tried for third and was caught. Pinson tried to reach second and was also caught.

Then Jerry Lynch doubled and Frank Robinson singled him home.

The Dodgers tied it 4-4 in the eighth on John Roseboro's homer after Gil Hodges walked. It took an unearned Redleg run in the same inning to provide the difference.

Frank Thomas reached second on a bad throw by Don Zimmer. A walk to Roy McMillan and Don Newcombe's pinch single filled the bases and Temple's sacrifice fly accounted for the score.

Pinson's home run after Temple drew a walk gave Cincinnati a two-run edge in the first inning. Singles by Gus Bell, Ed Bailey and McMillan created another run in the fourth.

The Dogers scored one run in the fourth and another in the sixth.

In tonight's game, Pena is opposed by Stan Williams.

Columbus Sweeps Into First Place In International

By The Associated Press

The Columbus Jets are just that—Jets. They've streaked into first place in the International League in jet-like fashion by winning 10 of their last 12 games.

They hit the top spot Tuesday night with a 10-inning 4-3, and 9-1 regulation doubleheader victory over the Montreal Royals. It marked the earliest ever that Columbus has hit the IL top spot.

In other games, Havana helped knock Buffalo out of first with a 1-0 victory, while Rochester defeated Miami 5-1. Toronto-Richmond was rained out.

Reliever Lynn Lovenguth (7-4) got the Jet's first game victory, after the score was tied 2-2 after the regulation seven innings of the opener. Nino Escalera's two-out single in the 10th off loser Rene Valdes (3-4) was the clincher.

Joe Gibbon (5-3) pitched a four-hitter in the nightcap. It was his third victory without defeat in the plurge and second over Montreal.

Hoyt Chased By Gnats, But Wins 8th Straight

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

CHICAGO (AP) — Knuckleballer Hoyt Wilhelm finally has been chased from the mound—but it took a swarm of gnats to do it.

It happened in the first inning at Comiskey Park Tuesday night. After the bug battle on the mound delayed the game 16 minutes, Wilhelm returned to pitch Baltimore to a 3-2 victory over the Chicago White Sox and into second place.

The seven-hitter marked the eighth triumph without defeat for Wilhelm, 35, who had a 3-10 record last year and was picked up from Cleveland for the waiver price.

Wilhelm never will forget that first inning.

"It's the strangest thing that ever happened to me in a game," he said. "There was a cloud of gnats over the mound so thick that they were flying in my mouth. I never should have pitched a ball until they cleared away. But I went ahead and walked (Nellie) Fox. After I threw two balls to (Earl) Torgeson I had to quit—I was chased by the bugs."

What followed sent the 17,654 fans into hysterics.

Oriole Coach Al Vincent charged to the mound with a towel and tried to bash the insects away.

Sox bat boy Johnny Rosisch rushed out with two bug bombs. He and Umpire Hank Soar began spraying the air.

Baltimore Trainer Eddie Weidner joined the battle, rubbing insecticide ointment over Wilhelm's face and arms while Soar sprayed his uniform with the bug bomb.

But the gnats kept dive bombing.

The ground crew lit papers and went after the swarm of bugs like the charge of the Light Brigade. It didn't work.

Finally, Sox President Bill Veeck had a fireworks bomb placed on the mound. The explosion was deafening, the white smoke suffocating.

The gnats gave up.

Wilhelm continued. Apparently shaken by the bug battle, he walked Torgeson and hit Sherm Lollar with a pitch. With the bases filled, Larry Doby forced Lollar at second, Fox scoring on the play. It was the first run off Wilhelm in 22 1-3 innings.

"I was so gooed up with ointment and stuff, I had to keep using rosin and dirt on my hands to keep from losing the ball," he said.

Fletcher's Hit Gives Victory To Bergener's

Bergener's squeezed out a 12-11 victory over Potters Bank and Trust while Coca Cola had an easier time with the Elks scoring a 19-10 verdict in Tuesday's Little Minor League play.

Bill Fletcher's hit in the last of the sixth inning drove home the winning run for Bergeners. Larry Kountz was the winning pitcher while Dave Copestick was checked with the loss.

Copestick with five singles was the leading hitter of the evening while Higgins collected three safeties for the losers.

Welch struck out 11 Elks batters in hurling Coca Cola to victory.

Brewer with two doubles and a single paced the winners who collected nine hits off of Graham. Graham was charged with the loss but struck out 12 in going the distance.

Haddix, Aaron Share National's Award Of Month

CINCINNATI (AP) — Hitter Hank Aaron and pitcher Harvey Haddix share the National League first player of the month award this year.

The award for May, announced Tuesday, showed the two players collected 17 votes apiece from the 40 ballots of baseball writers and broadcasters.

Aaron, league's best batter, hit eight homers and drove in 31 runs in May.

Haddix completed four of six games he started in May, had an earned run average of 2.08 and pitched a spectacular almost-perfect game against Milwaukee May 26. He hurled 12 flawless innings, but the Braves won 1-0 in the 13th.

The Camden Handicap victory for Vertex marked the ninth stakes win for the 5-year-old horse with Sam Boulmetis riding. Vertex was retired after the race due to a broken bone in his left foreleg.

FIELD AND STREAM

By R. L. LIDE

Bow and arrow fishermen will find good shooting in the shallow bays of Lake Guilford.

The carp can be seen in large numbers at different times of the day.

Be sure you have a good strong line, since some of the carp no doubt will be in the 30-pound class. They don't seem to have a set pattern as to when they will be active. Could be early in the morning, around noon or late in the afternoon. They seem to be spawning, although some of them are feeding on the vegetation carp style.

They draw a mouthful of sediment from the lake bottom then blow it out in the water and feed on the floating particles to their liking. Doesn't take them long to muddy up the portion of the lake where they are feeding.

YOU CAN get a good idea of the size of the fish by the part of their backs which appear just above the water surface.

Last year one bow hunter bagged two with one shot. It was witnessed by five people. I would like to see the bow and arrow fishermen gang up on the carp; the more they take the better. In other words, good hunting and good riddance.

The water temperature is 76 degrees and people are beginning to flock to the improved swimming beach recently constructed by the Ohio Division of Parks. The sanitary facilities are under construction and should be completed soon.

Hundreds of people enjoyed the Memorial Day week-end at Guilford. The camp sites were well filled and practically all the picnic tables were in use.

ONE THING some people have to learn the hard way is just how much sun the body can withstand without the ill effects of reddened skin, or worse yet becoming blistered. One lady was lying face down in the direct sunlight and I thought she was wearing a red scarf until I got close enough to see she was practically on fire and did not realize it.

Absorbing sunlight by degrees and obtaining a resaonable tan is fine, but if you ever had a severe sunburn from there on in you will learn not to overdo it. You can get burnt on a cloudy day. In fact I keep a coat of tan all year 'round, including the wind burns in the winter time.

You can tell a man who makes his living in the out-of-doors, since he never looses all his summer tan. Most farmers are tanned to the point where they are as dark as the American Indian.

Fishing in our local lakes has not been good for the last week.

The summer weather we had earlier seems to keep the larger fish out in the deep waters where the temperature is about 5 degrees lower than that near the shoreline.

If you plan to go fishing, you might as well begin at daybreak, knock it off about 9 a. m. then start again and fish until dark or after.

Brown Risks Title Tonight

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—"Fighting is my business," says lightweight champion Joe Brown. To prove his point, the 33-year-old ruler risks his crown for the seventh time when he takes on dangerous Paolo Rosi at Uline Arena tonight. The 15-rounder will be telecast nationally starting at 10 p.m. DST.

Commissions don't have to worry about making Old Bones from Houston live up to the six months defense rule. The aging but still slick champ is 'way ahead of schedule.

This could be the toughest of all his defenses of the crown he won from Wallace (Bud) Smith nearly three years ago. Rosi, a bony, wide-shouldered boxer-puncher, probably is the hardest hitter among the contenders.

The 31-year-old Italian-born New Yorker has run up an unbeaten streak of nine in the last two years. Although he is the No. 3 contender, he still is a hungry fighter. Paolo hasn't had too many big paydays since he started fighting for cash eight years ago in Italy.

The odds-makers figure Rosi will be the one to hit the deck. They have made the champion a 3-1 favorite.

Rosi's record is 31-4-1 including 13 knockouts, most of them scored with a slashing left hook.

Soft tissue over his jutting brows make Rosi vulnerable to cuts. You can be sure Brown will be stabbing away at the target.

Injuries Shelve O'Toole, Lawrence At Cincinnati

CINCINNATI (AP)—The pitching - poor Cincinnati Reds may face poverty now, and injuries are the immediate cause.

The problems:

Starter Brooks Lawrence pulled a muscle in his pitching arm Tuesday night against Los Angeles and his status is still uncertain.

Rookie Jim O'Toole, a bright—if wild—prospect is still in St. Francis Hospital with much stitching in his head and lip after an auto crash.

Those are two of the reasons why Orlando Pena, also a rookie and normally a relief pitcher, will start on the mound tonight for Cincinnati.

The Reds had pitching trouble and base-running trouble Tuesday night. But form was on their side and they beat the Dodgers, 5-4, on an unearned run.

Starter Don Drysdale was chased in the seventh inning when Cincinnati belted four hits, including a double, but realized only one run.

Johnny Temple and Vada Pinson started the innings with singles. But Temple tried for third and was caught. Pinson tried to reach second and was also caught.

Then Jerry Lynch doubled and Frank Robinson singled him home.

The Dodgers tied it 4-4 in the eighth on John Roseboro's homer after Gil Hodges walked. It took an unearned Redleg run in the same inning to provide the difference.

Frank Thomas reached second on a bad throw by Don Zimmer. A walk to Roy McMillan and Don Newcombe's pinch single filled the bases and Temple's sacrifice fly accounted for the score.

Pinson's home run after Temple drew a walk gave Cincinnati a two-run edge in the first inning. Singles by Gus Bell, Ed Bailey and McMillan created another run in the fourth.

The Dogers scored one run in the fourth and another in the sixth.

In tonight's game, Pena is opposed by Stan Williams.

Columbus Sweeps Into First Place In International

By The Associated Press

The Columbus Jets are just that—Jets. They've streaked into first place in the International League in jet-like fashion by winning 10 of their last 12 games.

They hit the top spot Tuesday night with a 10-inning 4-3, and 9-1 regulation doubleheader victory over the Montreal Royals. It marked the earliest ever that Columbus has hit the IL top spot.

In other games, Havana helped knock Buffalo out of first with a 1-0 victory, while Rochester defeated Miami 5-1. Toronto-Richmond was rained out.

Reliever Lynn Lovenguth (7-4) got the Jet's first game victory, after the score was tied 2-2 after the regulation seven innings of the opener. Nino Escalera's two-out single in the 10th off loser Rene Valdes (3-4) was the clincher.

Joe Gibbon (5-3) pitched a four-hitter in the nightcap. It was his third victory without defeat in the plurge and second over Montreal.

Hoyt Chased By Gnats, But Wins 8th Straight

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

CHICAGO (AP) — Knuckleballer Hoyt Wilhelm finally has been chased from the mound—but it took a swarm of gnats to do it.

It happened in the first inning at Comiskey Park Tuesday night. After the bug battle on the mound delayed the game 16 minutes, Wilhelm returned to pitch Baltimore to a 3-2 victory over the Chicago White Sox and into second place.

The seven-hitter marked the eighth triumph without defeat for Wilhelm, 35, who had a 3-10 record last year and was picked up from Cleveland for the waiver price.

Wilhelm never will forget that first inning.

"It's the strangest thing that ever happened to me in a game," he said. "There was a cloud of gnats over the mound so thick that they were flying in my mouth. I never should have pitched a ball until they cleared away. But I went ahead and walked (Nellie) Fox. After I threw two balls to (Earl) Torgeson I had to quit—I was chased by the bugs."

What followed sent the 17,654 fans into hysterics.

Oriole Coach Al Vincent charged to the mound with a towel and tried to bash the insects away.

Sox bat boy Johnny Rosisch rushed out with two bug bombs. He and Umpire Hank Soar began spraying the air.

Baltimore Trainer Eddie Weidner joined the battle, rubbing insecticide ointment over Wilhelm's face and arms while Soar sprayed his uniform with the bug bomb.

But the gnats kept dive bombing.

The ground crew lit papers and went after the swarm of bugs like the charge of the Light Brigade. It didn't work.

Finally, Sox President Bill Veeck had a fireworks bomb placed on the mound. The explosion was deafening, the white smoke suffocating.

The gnats gave up.

Wilhelm continued. Apparently shaken by the bug battle, he walked Torgeson and hit Sherm Lollar with a pitch. With the bases filled, Larry Doby forced Lollar at second, Fox scoring on the play. It was the first run off Wilhelm in 22 1-3 innings.

"I was so gooed up with ointment and stuff, I had to keep using rosin and dirt on my hands to keep from losing the ball," he said.

Fletcher's Hit Gives Victory To Bergener's

Bergener's squeezed out a 12-11 victory over Potters Bank and Trust while Coca Cola had an easier time with the Elks scoring a 19-10 verdict in Tuesday's Little Minor League play.

Bill Fletcher's hit in the last of the sixth inning drove home the winning run for Bergeners. Larry Kountz was the winning pitcher while Dave Copestick was checked with the loss.

Marshall with two singles and a double and Fletcher's three singles paced Bergeners' 10-hit attack.

Copestick with five singles was the leading hitter of the evening while Higgins collected three safeties for the losers.

Welch struck out 11 Elks batters in hurling Coca Cola to victory.

Brewer with two doubles and a single paced the winners who collected nine hits off of Graham. Graham was charged with the loss but struck out 12 in going the distance.

Rival To Dollar, Sterling Bloc

U.S. Laughs Off Rumors Of Russian 'Gold Ruble'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Top officials laughed off today rumors the Soviet Union might jolt Western trading countries by suddenly announcing a "gold ruble."

Such rumors have been flying through European money markets.

Most versions of the rumor say the Kremlin soon will decree that rubles—now artificially pegged at four to the dollar—will become freely convertible into gold on demand, at least in the satellite empire.

The U.S.S.R. has a big horde of nine billion dollars in gold which could meet any run on gold which might develop, according to these reports.

The Soviet move would be part of a carefully calculated Kremlin drive, these rumors allege, to create a ruble bloc as a rival to the dollar bloc and the sterling bloc based on U.S. and British currencies.

Responsible authorities who have carefully checked into the rumor said they have seen no sign the Soviet Union is seriously contemplating any such drastic maneuver.

Several officials expressed the opinion any step to make rubles convertible into gold would be financially disastrous for Moscow.

The Soviet Union has never disclosed how much gold it has stored in its bank vaults. Nor has it ever revealed how much gold it mines annually.

But American experts said it is very likely the U.S.S.R. has less than half of the nine-billion-dollar cache it is rumored to possess.

Any move by Moscow to make rubles convertible, they added, would probably swiftly exhaust available Soviet gold supplies.

Coach Named For 'Rebels' In Grid Game

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Bron Bacevich of Cincinnati Roger Bacon is the new head coach of the Rebels for the 14th annual Ohio High School North-South football game Aug. 15 at Canton.

Bacevich replaces Dave G. Puddington of Dayton Fairmont, recently named assistant coach at Kent State University.

Carl (Ducky) Schroeder of Massillon, secretary-treasurer of the sponsoring Ohio High School Football Coaches Assn., announced the change Tuesday. The shift to the collegiate field made Puddington ineligible under NCAA rules.

Puddington is the second head coach to lose out this year on the All-Star plum due to a promotion to the college sector. Gordon Larson of Marion Harding, originally berth, was forced to step aside voted into the Yankee head berth, was forced to step aside when he joined the Ohio State University staff, and the job went to Fred George of Cleveland Cathedral Latin.

Bacevich will retain the assistants previously named by Puddington. They are Andy Miller of Groveport, Joe Cochrane of New Concord, and Carl Benhase of Berne-Union.

In the previous 13 years of All-Star play, only one coach was forced out by a move to college. That was in 1954 when Bob Brownson of Portsmouth shifted to Ashland College.

Tests Seen Successful On New Polio Vaccine

CINCINNATI (AP) — A Cincinnati virus researcher says mass tests have been successful on his new polio vaccine which can be swallowed.

Dr. Albert Sabin said Tuesday nearly 3½ million children in Russia and Czechoslovakia took part in the tests with his live-but-weak virus vaccine.

Sabin returned Tuesday from conferences in Russia. He said he plans to tell collea gueihfsdsu--sni plans to tell colleagues of his findings on the vaccine at a world health federation meeting in Washington June 22.

Thomas Gray authored the familiar phrase "Where ignorance is bliss, 'tis folly to be wise."

Rival To Dollar, Sterling Bloc

U.S. Laughs Off Rumors Of Russian 'Gold Ruble'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Top officials laughed off today rumors the Soviet Union might jolt Western trading countries by suddenly announcing a "gold ruble."

Such rumors have been flying through European money markets.

Most versions of the rumor say the Kremlin soon will decree that rubles—now artificially pegged at four to the dollar—will become freely convertible into gold on demand, at least in the satellite empire.

The U.S.S.R. has a big horde of nine billion dollars in gold which could meet any run on gold which might develop, according to these reports.

The Soviet move would be part of a carefully calculated Kremlin drive, these rumors allege, to create a ruble bloc as a rival to the dollar bloc and the sterling bloc based on U.S. and British currencies.

Responsible authorities who have carefully checked into the rumor said they have seen no sign the Soviet Union is seriously contemplating any such drastic maneuver.

Several officials expressed the opinion any step to make rubles convertible into gold would be financially disastrous for Moscow.

The Soviet Union has never disclosed how much gold it has stored in its bank vaults. Nor has it ever revealed how much gold it mines annually.

But American experts said it is very likely the U.S.S.R. has less than half of the nine-billion-dollar cache it is rumored to possess.

Any move by Moscow to make rubles convertible, they added, would probably swiftly exhaust available Soviet gold supplies.

First 2 Merchants Appointed For New Executive Committee

The first two members of a new executive committee, which will replace the Board of Directors in an organizational change, were appointed Tuesday when the East Liverpool Merchants Association met in the Chamber of Commerce office.

William Kozel, immediate past chairman, and Maurice Rapport were named to the executive committee by Leslie Blumenthal, who assumed his duties yesterday as new head of ELMA.

Two more members of the committee will be chosen by the Board of Trustees of the Chamber, which will hold its monthly meeting next Tuesday. The committee will be comprised of the four appointive members and the three officers of ELMA.

In addition to Blumenthal, the officers are Ralph A. Finley, vice chairman, and Dayton Allen, treasurer. Finley, as vice chairman of the association, will serve as chairman of the executive committee.

E. R. Chandler, secretary of ELMA and secretary-manager of the Chamber, will serve as an ex officio member of the executive committee. In a recent organizational change, the group dispensed with its former Board of Directors, substituting for it the executive committee, which will serve in an advisory capacity to the president.

Blumenthal appointed a Christmas activities committee comprised of Harold Allison, George A. Shaw and Jack Steinberg to start plans for the 1959 holiday season. The committee was authorized to call for the assistance of other ELMA members with experience on the Christmas committee.

Kozel reported on a meeting in late May at Youngstown which he and three other merchants attended to hear an address by Nathan J. Gold of Lincoln, Neb., president of the National Retail Merchants' Association. Others attending were Paul Bloor, Robert Vodrey and Arthur Simmers.

Blumenthal reported on the annual spring outing, in which a group of merchants traveled by chartered bus to Pittsburgh to attend a Pittsburgh Pirates game.

Richard Kerin reported the next End-of-the-Month Sale will be held Tuesday, June 30, extending into Wednesday morning, July 1. Kerin is chairman of the committee in charge of the monthly sales.

Although the group generally dispenses with both the July and August meetings because of the summer vacation season, it agreed to skip only the August meeting this year. At the next meeting July 7, summer promotions will be discussed.

Employer Groups Rapped By Meany

WASHINGTON (AP)— AFL-CIO President George Meany said today employer organizations are trying to weaken and perhaps abolish labor unions through restrictive legislation.

In testimony prepared for a House Labor subcommittee, Meany contended that "grave and irreparable harm to the United States trade union movement" would result from Senate changes in the original bill introduced by Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass).

"We support legislation that will get at the crooks," he said. "We oppose legislation that will do harm to the trade union movement."

Without naming them, he said employer organizations are trying to convince Congress that the Senate-passed bill is "too weak," even with the amendments his organization opposes.

He added: "These employer organizations want this Congress to adopt restrictive, anti-union legislation. They want to make the unions weaker. They want, if possible, to abolish them."

500 Youngsters At Bible Schools

Well over 500 pupils were enrolled for Daily Vacation Bible School classes which opened Monday in five area churches, with more expected to attend as the week progresses.

One of the largest was at the Boyce Methodist Church where Miss Bonnie Armstrong, secretary, said 200 attended. Mrs. Elmer Ralston is director.

Two films, "Under His Wing," and "Tammy" were screened Tuesday night. A missionary offering will be taken Thursday night with the donations going for a church missionary.

Some 110 were enrolled at the Calcutta United Presbyterian Church, with the theme, "Following Jesus."

The Gardendale Church of the Nazarene classes were attended by 81, while the Glendale Church of the Nazarene in Newell had an attendance of 52.

The Oakland Free Methodist Church reported an enrollment of 62 pupils and 17 helpers.

The Nazarene church in Newell will climax its classes with a wiener roast on June 14 at Thompson Park.

Koppers Co. Acquires Facility In Michigan

Purchase of the Halowax plant of Union Carbide Corp. at Wyandotte, Mich., by Koppers Co., Inc., was announced at Pittsburgh by Fred C. Foy, chairman and president of Koppers.

Foy said that Koppers has purchased the physical assets and inventory of the plant which produces chlorinated naphthalene and paraffin and several other chlorinated chemicals and resins, and that it will be operated by the company's Tar Products Division. The transaction was in cash but the amount was not disclosed.

The acquisition brings the number of Koppers plants to 70 in 30 states, with an additional plant being located in Canada.

Koppers' plant at Arroyo is a facility of the division.

France, in 1778, was the first foreign nation to recognize the United States as an independent nation.
